Q. What years are covered by those Exhibit GOP-27 summary sheets?

A. 2005 through 2015.

A. Yes, it does.

MS. KANE: Steve, just if it will help you, I'm not going to object to the accuracy of the numbers. I'll stipulate to that. I know that you're going to lay foundation for all those, but there's not going to be an objection.

MR. SAMUELS: Okay. Thank you.

BY MR. SAMUELS:

Q. All right. I'm going to ask a question that I would normally ask after each one of these documents, but in view of Ms. Kane's statement that she's not going to object to the accuracy, I'm going to just ask the question with regard to GOP-28 and let you answer it and I will probably not ask it after every other one.

Based upon your own personal knowledge, were all of the Exhibit GOP-28 summary sheets directly and accurately based upon Defendant Greater Omaha's invoices which you have already testified are accurate?

A. Yes, they do.

MR. SAMUELS: And, Ms. Kane, is that the type of question that you're not going to object to and you're going to say you presume that they are accurate?

A. Yes, they do.

MR. SAMUELS: Okay. And Ms. Kane has already indicated that she will not object and she agrees that these listing sheets directly and accurately state facts to which she will not object.

MS. KANE: Correct.

MR. SAMUELS: Thank you.

A. Yes, it is.

Q. Thank you.

MS. KANE: On Exhibit 32 I will object to the foundation of the witness to testify to its content. The fact that it was printed, I don't believe the witness has established -- or that counsel has established the witness' competency to testify thereto.

MR. SAMUELS: Ms. Kane, Exhibit 32, GOP-32, is included in defendant's notice of reliance which establishes, under the appropriate cases, the authenticity. And I am not asking the witness to testify as to the truth of anything in this document, simply to relate the name of the company listed in Exhibit 32 with the name of the company which is listed in Exhibit 31. Thank you.

MS. KANE: I maintain my objection.

MR. SAMUELS: So noted.

BY MR. SAMUELS:

Ms. Mesenbrink, I have no further questions. Thank you.

(An off-the-record discussion was held.)

CROSS-EXAMINATION

BY MS. KANE:

Q. Hello, Ms. Mesenbrink.

A. Hi.

Q. My name is Nora Kane, and I represent Omaha Steaks International in this litigation.

A. Okay.

Q. Appreciate you being here today. I didn't hear your name until, I think it was February 1st of this year. When were you first consulted about testifying in this matter?

MR. SAMUELS: Objection. Are you, are you asking her to reveal an attorney/client privileged communication?

MS. KANE: Well, who's her attorney?

MR. SAMUELS: I am her attorney.

MS. KANE: You're attorney for the company and the employee?

MR. SAMUELS: No, but she represents -- she's an employee of the company.

MS. MORRIS: Right.

MS. KANE: There's -- that's interesting that you represent the company and the employee. They're not one and the same.

MR. SAMUELS: I think in this case where she's being offered as a records custodian of the company, she, as employee of Greater Omaha, is protected by the attorney/client privilege.

MS. KANE: I disagree. And I'm not asking for the content of communication, but I would like to know the date of when she was asked or told that she would be contributing to this litigation, which does not invade the privilege, although I disagree that one exists.

MR. SAMUELS: Well, I'm going to object to the question on that basis.

I don't want you to reveal anything that I said to you or that you said to me.

MS. KANE: And I won't ask.

BY MS. KANE:

Q. I would just like to know the date of when you knew that you would be involved or when you were asked to be involved.

MR. SAMUELS: To the best that you can recollect.

A. Yeah, I could not tell you a date of -- I do not know the date.

Q. Can you tell me whether it's been days?

A. It's probably been a couple weeks.

Q. A couple weeks?

A. Maybe a couple weeks, maybe one.

Q. Okay.

A. It hasn't been long.

Q. Okay. After the beginning of 2016?

A. Yes.

Q. Not before January 1st, 2016?

A. That I knew I was involved, yes.

Q. Okay. That's fair. The -- without looking, and we can go through if we need to, through all of the exhibits, you have consistently used the term "beef products." When you say "beef products," are you talking about boxed beef or are you talking about something different, or do we need to go invoice by invoice?

A. Greater Omaha sells boxed beef, comboed beef, but it is all beef items because that's all we do.

Q. Okay. And I know what -- well, I assume I know what you mean. Tell me your definition of boxed beef.

A. Boxed beef is a box that leaves our facility with beef inside which is different than how combos are packed.

Q. And boxed beef, as I understand it, contains larger primal cuts of the animal as opposed to perhaps packaged steaks or hamburger?

MR. SAMUELS: Object to this whole line of questioning. Ms. Mesenbrink testified about documents over which she has supervision and custody. She didn't testify about the nature of any kinds of beef products. So your questions seem to be exceeding the scope of the direct.

MS. KANE: Well, if she testified that they were full of widgets, I'd say what are widgets and what do they constitute. I would like to know what's being sold in these invoices. You know, it could be that you have a racket out back where you're selling paper. You know, I don't -- I want to know what boxed beef is and then I want to know what --

BY MS. KANE:

Q. What was the other term you used?

A. Combos.

Q. Combos.

MR. SAMUELS: I'll object to the whole line of questioning as being beyond the scope of cross-examination. She didn't testify about the nature of any of the products other than to say what it says on the invoices and on the summaries and on the documents over which she has custody. So I'm going to object to the line of questioning on the basis that it exceeds the scope of cross-examination because she didn't testify as to any nature of any products at all.

MS. KANE: And so noted. And no speaking objections, and they're getting repetitive. Your objection is noted.

BY MS. KANE:

Q. Now please tell me what boxed beef means to you.

MR. SAMUELS: If you can.

A. Okay. I am going to use this just so that we all can see.

Q. Tell me which one.

A. Exhibit 30.

Q. Thirty. Okay. You can keep it turned toward you, and just refer me to a page number.

A. We can just start at the top. Each of these would be all boxed beef items.

MR. SAMUELS: The witness is pointing to Bates number GOP-1062 on Exhibit 30.

Q. And now I'm going to ask you again to tell me what boxed beef means.

MR. SAMUELS: Asked and answered.

MS. KANE: No. She just pointed to a document and said these are all boxed beef.

Q. What is boxed beef? I'm a lawyer, I don't know?

A. All products that we make are beef items, so all of those items go into a box.

Q. And does boxed beef mean -- well, now tell me what a combo pack is.

A. That is, again, boxed -- it's beef items that just go into a different size container than a box.

Q. Is it a box?

A. It is made of cardboard.

Q. Okay. What is the difference between what is considered boxed beef and what is considered combos?

A. I'm sorry, I don't understand your question.

Q. Well, you call them two different things, although they're both beef products going into a box.

A. Just how they're packaged is different.

Q. Okay. And what's different?

A. One is a large item and one is a smaller item.

Q. The box itself or the items within?

A. The items within can be any size, but the box itself is smaller than a combo.

Q. And do the boxed beef products that are represented in the exhibits to which you've testified today, and we can go through each invoice if we need to, are the boxed beef products shipped in -- to -- on a wholesale basis or a retail basis?

A. We sell to everyone in the U.S. There is no guideline or anything of who we sell.

Q. Okay. Now, you have testified that you've sold products to Omaha Steaks; correct?

A. Uh-huh.

COURT REPORTER: Is that a yes?

A. Yes.

Q. And to Omaha Beef Company and Omaha Meat Processors, Inc.; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. You didn't identify any other customers today?

A. No.

Q. In Exhibit 27 -- do you have 27 before you, please? Was I correct when I heard you testify that this is to all buyers in all states in the union?

MR. SAMUELS: Objection. That's not what she said.

MS. KANE: I asked if I was correct. She gets to tell me, not you.

A. It's a summary of all beef items sold per state.

Q. And it doesn't break it down by the purchaser, only by state?

A. Just by state.

Q. Correct. Did you print this document?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. And is this a document that you normally keep? Is this part of the reporting you do to management?

A. Yes. Yes.

Q. Okay. Staying on 27 I was just curious why the poundage per state doesn't appear on page 708, 709, 710, and it looks like we don't show the weight until the year 2008?

A. That is correct. We had a system change. We did not save that information up until that time.

Q. Okay. And from Exhibit 27 are you able to ascertain whether those sales were for boxed beef or for combo packs?

A. There's no way -- just that they're beef items is all.

Q. Okay. So Exhibit 27 would just include --

A. All beef.

Q. -- all beef products?

A. Yes.

Q. It's so easy in normal conversation to anticipate the question and start to answer, and it's for the benefit of Madam Court Reporter that -- and I do it too. I'll step on you and I apologize. We just have to be careful for the record for her.

Let's see. If you would, turn to Exhibit 28, please. Turn to page 2. This document states -- and I should say page 2, it's marked GOP-689 -- sales history for Omaha Steak International, and I note that it says it was compiled on January 23rd, 2016. The following page shows the same and the following and the following.

Now, I note that January 23rd, 2016, appears to be a Saturday and all these documents were printed at about the same time, according to the exhibit. Were these documents prepared and printed by you?

A. Yes, they were.

Q. And for what purpose were they compiled and printed on Saturday, January 23rd, 2016?

A. It was a request.

Q. From counsel?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. So it's not a document that was produced in the ordinary course of your duties as you've described?

A. We do print these on a daily, weekly basis as needed, yes.

Q. Why -- if they were already prepared on a daily and weekly basis, why would you need to prepare them again for counsel?

A. It was a request.

Q. Wouldn't you -- if you already compiled them on a regular basis, wouldn't you have already had them in your file?

A. We do not print them all.

Q. So are there documents identical to Exhibit 28 compiled on a daily, weekly, or annual basis in your file?

MR. SAMUELS: Objection. In her files or in the computer system?

MS. KANE: That's what I meant.

Q. Files, computer system, boxes, stacked in a warehouse. Whatever you want to call your business records. Are the documents in -- the pages that appear in Exhibit 28 identical to those that appear elsewhere within your company's records?

A. Identical, no.

Q. What would be different?

A. They're not in this format, but the data is there, yes.

Q. When you say "this format," please explain to me for the record what you mean.

A. They would mean that it's -- it wouldn't give you like a -- it's just -- it goes across a column as opposed to in this format.

Q. And, I'm sorry, I don't know what you mean.

A. On the computer it would be --

Q. Like a spreadsheet?

A. Like a spreadsheet.

Q. Okay. So what did, what did you have to do, if anything, to extract the information and put it into this format?

A. Hit print.

Q. But if it wasn't in that format, I don't understand. Would you have to first gather it and put it somewhere else and then print?

A. You put in the date that you want to search and it does it on its own.

Q. So you enter some sort of search query. Tell me how that works, how you would input the query.

A. You would input a customer name and then a date range.

Q. And would it appear on your screen as it does on 689?

A. On the screen, yes. If I chose this option.

Q. And then you hit print and you get --

A. Yes.

Q. -- page 689, for example; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. Okay. What is your ordinary work week here at Greater Omaha Packing?

A. Monday through Saturday.

Q. So it would not be out of the ordinary for you to be here Saturday morning --

A. No.

Q. -- unfortunately; right?

Okay. I told you I'd not heard your name until February 1st. And in the disclosure that Mr. Samuels provided he described that you would be testifying about your employer's business records which you have done. He also stated that you had knowledge regarding facts supporting the allegations set forth in defendant's answers served in this proceeding. Do you know what that means?

A. Can you reread that again?

Q. Knowledge regarding facts supporting the allegations set forth in defendant's answers served in this proceeding.

A. I just have the facts as far as documents.

Q. Did you assist in preparing answers in this proceeding?

A. I only provided him these documents and then answered the questions.

Q. Okay. So you don't have any knowledge about the answers served in this proceeding?

A. No.

Q. Okay. In the records kept by your employer and under your supervision, is there some sort of distinction made between sales to companies such as my client who buy on a bulk basis and customers who may buy a smaller amount to sell in their -- perhaps in their retail store?

A. I'm not sure I'm understanding your question.

Q. And it's probably a bad one. I could probably object on my own.

Does your employer sell to entities such as a small grocery store?

MR. SAMUELS: Objection. You're way exceeding the scope of cross-examination. She hasn't testified about customers at all other than what's in these documents.

Q. Well, and it's fair if you don't have the knowledge, but the documents you testified show sales to customers; correct?

MR. SAMUELS: Listen to her question.

A. That's correct.

Q. Okay. And you are -- since 2003 you testified -- and I'm paraphrasing and you correct me if I misstate your testimony, please -- that you supervise all invoices?

A. That is correct.

Q. And you report daily sales?

A. That is correct.

Q. Right. Within the umbrella of the task of supervising invoices for the last 13 years, have you gained some knowledge about the customers that purchase beef products from your employer?

A. Yes.

Q. And what I'd like to ask about that, about those invoices that you supervise, are there invoices generated to, for instance, a small grocery store?

A. Yes.

Q. And by "small grocery store," for those -- those of us here from Omaha, for instance, Wohlner's, something that's not a chain?

MR. SAMUELS: Objection. I'm going to object to her identifying any customers other than the ones identified in the exhibits today.

MS. KANE: Well, there's -- Exhibit 27 has sales of millions and millions of dollars to customers in every state in the union it looks like, and so those customers are included in here.

MR. SAMUELS: The customers are not named in anything, and as you well know the names of specific customers are a confidential matter.

MS. KANE: You put her birth date and home address on the record, so I don't think you know what confidential information is. I'm going to continue this line of questioning subject to your objections.

MR. SAMUELS: Fair enough.

BY MS. KANE:

Q. Is your employer currently making sales to private persons who want to order just one steak or two steaks?

A. Not to my knowledge.

Q. Are you familiar with the advertising that your company has done where an individual could buy a steak and by the barcode have an app to ascertain the best time to cook it or when the aging is right? The program's escaping me. Do you know what I'm talking about?

A. No, I don't.

MS. MORRIS: TenderAge.

Q. Do you know of a product called TenderAge?

A. I do.

Q. And what is TenderAge?

A. It is just a program of beef sales, to my knowledge.

Q. And are those sales included in the reports that you've compiled and produced today?

A. Yes, they would be.

Q. And is there any way to query your computer system to break down sales under TenderAge versus sales to Omaha Steaks, for example?

A. Not currently.

Q. You were able to extract information limited solely to Omaha Steaks and the other two entities which we discussed. If you're able to do that, why are you not able to do that for customers who are purchasing different products?

A. I'm not understanding, but I think you asked me two questions.

Q. That would be a compound objection. You testified that you were able to query your computer system and extract information about sales to just Omaha Steaks; correct?

A. That was the question, yes.

Q. And you were also able to extract information about sales just to Omaha Beef Company; correct?

A. Correct.

Q. So tell me why you would not be able to extract similar information -- I'm going to back up before that question.

You were also able to extract records of sales to Omaha Steaks of strictly Angus products; correct?

A. Yes.

Q. And so in light of your ability to do that, can you tell me why you would not be able to extract similar information about specific sales such as the TenderAge product to a specific customer?

A. We don't have a program under TenderAge.

Q. What does that mean?

A. Like the ONA is a program. TenderAge is not a program.

Q. So what is TenderAge if not a program?

A. It's a beef cut, to my knowledge.

Q. In your duties as credit manager and supervising invoices, reporting daily sales, and doing summaries on a quarterly and annual basis, do those include reports that separate out the TenderAge product?

A. To my knowledge we don't have a TenderAge -- I'm not sure of your question. I'm sorry.

Q. Okay. Can you tell me what part you didn't understand? Help me with --

A. Can you repeat it? I think I missed the first.

MS. KANE: Okay. Dee Dee.

(The requested portion of the testimony was read back at page 42, line 24.)

A. No, they do not.

Q. Okay. Does your employer sell product, beef product, on AmazonFresh?

A. I can't -- not to my knowledge. I don't, I don't know.

Q. Okay. Do you know who would know?

A. Probably the vice president of sales.

Q. Okay. Just one minute in my notes and then I would like to meet with Nancy and then it won't be much longer.

Exhibit 31, could you please turn to Exhibit 31. Remind me what Exhibit 31 is, please.

MR. SAMUELS: Remind you what it is?

MS. KANE: Yes.

BY MS. KANE:

Q. It's invoices; correct? To whom?

A. It is three invoices of beef products sold to Omaha Beef Company in Danbury, Connecticut.

Q. And the dates on these invoices on page 432 is May 22nd, 2014, as is the next page, and on page 434 it's May 30th, 2014, and on page GOP-440 it's August 8th, 2014; correct? Did I read those correctly?

A. That is true.

Q. Does Exhibit 31 represent the total sales that Greater Omaha Packing has ever made to Omaha Beef Company?

A. No.

Q. Can you tell me why you chose the invoices that you did to compile Exhibit 31?

A. It was a request for just a few invoices.

Q. Okay. Was that request also made just within the last few weeks?

A. I don't recall the date that those were requested.

Q. Approximately. A year ago? A month ago? A week ago?

A. No. An estimate, month ago.

Q. Okay. Would the same be true for Exhibit 33 which is invoices from Greater Omaha Packing to Omaha Meat Processors, and the question being, similar that you were just asked to collect a sample of invoices?

A. That is true.

Q. And these do not represent the entirety of Greater Omaha Packing's sales to Omaha Meat Processing?

A. That is correct.

MS. KANE: Okay. Well, if you don't mind, I'd like to visit with Nancy for a few minutes and then wrap up.

(A short recess was taken.)

BY MS. KANE:

Q. Welcome back.

A. Thanks.

Q. I'm not going to ask any more questions about beef products, but I am going to ask you about in your role as credit manager and supervising invoices, do those invoices include, for instance, the person who comes and cleans the building, invoices for people who provide services and products to you?

A. Product invoices.

Q. Product invoices. Can you give me a for-instance of what --

A. Beef product invoices is what I would manage and supervise.

Q. The animals coming in for slaughter you mean?

A. The boxed beef items.

Q. You're talking about the invoices that you issue?

A. Yes.

Q. Are you involved at all in accounts payable?

A. No.

Q. Okay. Who is? Who's in charge of accounts payable?

A. That would fall under our controller, Tim Harpenau.

Q. Would you spell his name for me?

A. H-A-R-P-E-U --

MR. THEISEN: N.

A. -- N.

Q. H-A-R-P-E-U-N. And what was his --

MR. THEISEN: U-A.

MS. KANE: U-A-N?

MR. THEISEN: N-U-A.

MS. KANE: N-U-A. We weren't done at N.

BY MS. KANE:

Q. And what was his first name?

A. Tim.

MS. KANE: Okay. I don't have any more questions. Thank you very much. I hope it wasn't too painful.

MR. SAMUELS: Deposition is closed.

(The deposition was concluded at the hour of 2:08 p.m.)
