Opposition No. 91213573

The BioSolve Company

v.

Biocenos Solutions, Inc.

Nicole Thier, Paralegal Specialist:

On August 6, 2015, Opposer filed a withdrawal of the opposition without Applicant's written consent.

Opposer further states that this withdrawal is filed in conjunction with Applicant's abandonment of its application, which has not been filed with the Board at this time.

Trademark Rule 2.106(c) provides that after an answer is filed, the opposition may not be withdrawn without prejudice except with the written consent of Applicant.

In view thereof, Opposer is allowed until 30- days from the mailing date of this order to provide Applicant's written consent to the withdrawal. Additionally, Applicant is allowed the same 30- days to file its abandonment of its application.

Proceedings are otherwise suspended.
