v.

Inga Beckham dba Born 2
Hustle

Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist:

Answer was due in this case on January 6, 2014. Applicant did not file an answer by such date nor did it file a timely motion to further extend its time to answer. In view thereof, the Board issued a notice of default to applicant on January 21, 2014 requiring applicant to show cause why judgment should not be entered against applicant. On January 21, 2014, applicant filed a response to the Board's order and a request to extend its time to file its answer to the notice of opposition.

Applicant's response fails to indicate proof of service on opposer, as required by Trademark Rule 2.119. In order to expedite this matter, the parties are directed to Notwithstanding, strict compliance with Trademark Rule 2.119 is required by applicant in all future papers filed with the Board.

In view thereof, opposer is allowed thirty days from the mailing date of this order in which to file a response to applicant's response to the Board's show cause order, failing which, the Board's show cause order will be set aside and trial dates will be reset including applicant's time to file its answer to the notice of opposition.

Proceedings herein are suspended.
