LeMans Corporation

v.

LeMar Xavier Lewis

Nicole Thier, Paralegal Specialist:

On June 18, 2014 and July 17, 2014, the Board allowed applicant thirty days in which to show cause why default should not be entered against based on its apparent loss of interest in this case after the withdrawal of applicant's counsel of record.

On July 17, 2014, applicant filed a response with the Board stating that it wished to represent itself in this proceeding moving forward.

Applicant's communication failed to indicate proof of service on opposer's counsel, as required by Trademark Rule 2.119.

In order to expedite this matter, a copy of the July 17, 2014 is forwarded herewith to opposer's counsel.¹ Opposer is allowed until thirty ¹ Strict compliance with Trademark Rule 2.119 is required in all future filings. When a party filed a document that is required to be served upon every other party to the proceeding, proof that required service has been made must be submitted before the Board will consider the filing.
