vs.

WALMSLEY, Ross

Applicant.

MOTION FOR WITHDRAWAL AS COUNSEL UNDER 37 CFR 10.40 and MOTION FOR SUSPENSION OF PROCEEDINGS

The undersigned hereby moves the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board for permission to withdraw from representation of the Applicant in the above-captioned action.

A parallel motion is being filed in Opposition No. 91215504, relating to the same application.

The undersigned has today informed Applicant of this motion for withdrawal, has provided Applicant with copies of all relevant papers from the file, and is moving for a suspension of the proceeding to allow Applicant to secure new counsel in view of the June 2, 2014 deadline for the Answer. Accordingly, Applicant has due notice of the withdrawal, and should have, upon granting of the suspension, sufficient time to locate new counsel and prepare and file its Answer to the Opposition.

As basis for the withdrawal, the undersigned sets forth:

- 1) The undersigned has, in this case, corresponded and received instructions only from Applicant's local attorney in Australia. Applicant's Australian attorney has now informed that he has withdrawn from representing the Applicant. 37 CFR 10.40(c)(3);

and

- 2) It appears, on information and belief, that the Applicant may be asserting a position in this or a related proceeding merely for the purposes of harassing a trademark owner.
37 CFR 10.40(b)(1).

Wherefore, it is respectfully requested that the Board grant the motion for withdrawal and grant a suspension of the proceedings in order to allow Applicant to secure new counsel.

Dated: May 19, 2014

Respectfully submitted,
NORRIS, MCLAUGHLIN & MARCUS, P.A.
