v.

Eva Rong Su

Veronica P. White, Paralegal Specialist:

On January 26, 2015, the Board ordered Applicant to appoint new counsel or to file a paper stating that Applicant chooses to represent itself, failing which the Board would issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against Applicant based on Applicant's apparent loss of interest in the case.

On May 20, 2015, Applicant filed its response with the Board stating that it chooses to represent itself in this proceeding going forward.¹

¹ It is noted that Applicant's filing provides proof of service, however does not state the name and address for the attorney of record for the Opposer upon which the document was served as required by Trademark Rule 2.119, which states.

This written statement should take the form of a "certificate of service" and should read as follows:

The undersigned hereby certifies that a true and correct copy of the foregoing [insert title of document] was served upon opposer by forwarding said copy, via first class mail, postage prepaid to: [insert name and address].

The certificate of service must be signed and dated.

Accordingly, proceedings herein are resumed and trial dates are reset as indicated below.
