NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Madam:

Opposer PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2065 Hamilton Avenue, San Jose, CA 95125 (“Opposer” or “PayPal”). PayPal believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 86/044,185, filed August 21, 2013 by Choice Plus, LLC (“Applicant”) and hereby opposes this application under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 1063 (as amended).

The Commissioner for Trademarks is hereby authorized to draw on the deposit account No. 501349, Ref. 003377.000139 for any necessary fees.

Application Serial No. 86/044,185 was filed on August 21, 2013 for the mark CLAIMPAL (hereinafter “the CLAIMPAL Mark”) for “acquisition and transfer of monetary claims” in International Class 36. The application was published for opposition on January 21, 2014.

A request for extension of time was filed through Sunday, July 20, 2014. Therefore, this Notice of Opposition is timely filed on Monday, July 21, 2014.

As grounds for the opposition, it is alleged that:

PAYPAL'S BUSINESS

1. Founded in 1998, PayPal, Inc. is one of the world's top online payment processing service companies. PayPal prides itself in being the more secure, safer, easier way to pay and get paid online. In most countries around the world, PayPal's customers can pay through credit cards or account balances, and in some countries, through bank accounts or buyer credit – without exposing their financial information to merchants.

2. PayPal's primary website, which it has operated since July 1999, is located at www.paypal.com. The www.paypal.com website generates, on average, nearly 900,000 unique page views per day.

3. PayPal users have opened more than 230 million accounts with approximately 143 million active accounts worldwide, servicing 193 markets in 26 currencies. Many of the top online retailers accept PayPal as a method of payment, alongside Visa[®], American Express[®], and MasterCard[®].

4. PayPal has devoted substantial resources to advertise and promote its services and products under the PAYPAL mark, which embodies the substantial goodwill that PayPal has earned as a result of providing high quality services and products. PayPal's advertisements and promotions have appeared on many global sites on the Internet, including the world-famous eBay.com website.

5. PayPal's services enjoy widespread reputation as high-quality, secure, reliable, and user-friendly online payment options and well as providing credit and debit card services and insurance for financial transactions, both in the United States and internationally. PayPal is featured as an online payment solution by countless top names in online retail and ticket sales.

6. PayPal has received numerous awards for excellence from the internet industry and the business community, including awards from Time Magazine (Best Cybertech 2000), U.S. News & World Report (Best of the Web), PC Magazine (Top 100 Web Sites) and Fast Company (Top Innovator in Finance, 2011), as well as multiple awards from the Webby Awards (Best Financial Services Site and the Webby People's Voice Awards for Best Financial Services Site) and the CNET Webware 100 (in the categories of commerce and productivity).

PAYPAL'S MARKS

7. Since its financial payment services were launched in October 1999, PayPal has continuously, prominently, and conspicuously used the coined and distinctive mark PAYPAL in interstate commerce in the United States in connection with its goods and services.

8. PayPal is the owner of numerous United States registrations for the mark PAYPAL and variations thereof on the Principal Register (in word mark form and in stylized or design form). These registrations cover a variety of goods and services. Each of these registrations is valid and subsisting, and in some cases they are now incontestable under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. §1065. These registrations include the following:

B	PAYPAL	2,879,561	August 31, 2004	25

H	PAYPAL HERE & Design 	4,415,442	October 8, 2013	9, 36 and 42

9. PayPal also has extensive common law rights in the PAYPAL Marks, and it uses these marks extensively with its financial services and related goods and services throughout the United States and around the world.

10. PayPal has used the PAYPAL Marks to reach customers throughout the United States and the world. The PayPal service is offered in numerous languages, currently supports payments in twenty-five currencies including U.S. Dollars, Canadian Dollars, Mexican Pesos, British Pounds Sterling, Czech Koruny, Danish Kroner, Euros, Hungarian Forints, Norwegian Kroner, Polish Zlotys, Russian Rubles, Swedish Kronor, Swiss Francs, Turkish Lira Brazilian reals, Israeli Shekels, Australian Dollars, Chinese RMB, Hong Kong Dollars, Japanese Yen, Malaysian Ringgits, New Zealand Dollars, Philippine Pesos, Singapore Dollars, Taiwan New Dollars and Thai Bhat, and is accessible from virtually any location around the globe using the Internet. In addition, PayPal users in 65 countries can receive funds quickly from anyone with an email address and a Visa or MasterCard payment card in 185 countries and eight territories around the world.

11. As a result of PayPal's widespread use of the PAYPAL Marks in the United States and around the world, its extensive advertising and promotion, continuous and unsolicited media coverage, the high degree of consumer recognition of the PAYPAL mark, PayPal's vast customer base, and the uniqueness of the PAYPAL mark in its field, among other factors, the PAYPAL mark is famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. 1125(c).

12. PAYPAL is an invented, fanciful mark that is highly distinctive. The term PAYPAL has no descriptive meaning as applied to financial services, or to any of the other goods and services covered by PayPal's registrations or in connection with which it uses the PAYPAL Marks.

13. PayPal has expended considerable effort and expense in promoting the PAYPAL Marks, and goods and services offered in connection with these marks, both in the United States and internationally.

14. In addition to its own advertising efforts, PayPal has been the subject of thousands of unsolicited stories in television, radio, and print media, highlighting PayPal's innovative and successful efforts in online person-to-person trading.

15. As a result of PayPal's widespread use of the PAYPAL Marks worldwide, extensive Internet, television, and print advertising and promotion, continuous and unsolicited media coverage, the high degree of consumer recognition of the PAYPAL Marks, the strong and loyal base of customers that PayPal enjoys for its services, numerous trademark registrations, and the absence of any material use of any highly similar mark by others, among other factors, the PAYPAL Marks are famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

APPLICANT AND ITS PENDING APPLICATION

16. Applicant seeks to register the mark CLAIM PAL in connection with “acquisition and transfer of monetary claims” in International Class 36. The application was published for opposition on January 21, 2014.

17. Applicant’s CLAIMPAL Mark is highly similar to the PAYPAL Marks. Applicant’s CLAIMPAL Mark copies the pattern of PAYPAL’s mark by substituting the descriptive or generic word “CLAIM” for the word “PAY,” combining it with the completely arbitrary term PAL, and applying it to financial services related to those of PayPal. Applicant has created a mark dominated by the arbitrary suffix PAL, and that includes the descriptive if not generic term “CLAIM.” As a result, Applicant’s mark emulates and calls to mind PayPal.

18. The services offered under the CLAIMPAL Mark are highly related to those provided by PayPal. Specifically, PayPal provides various online payment and payment processing services, credit card and debit card transaction and processing services, electronic payment processing services, monetary and funds transfer services, and provides services that enable its users to purchase various goods and services, to send and receive money, and to make payments. Upon information and belief, Applicant provides services that involve the acquisition of rights in financial claims, the administration of rights in financial claims, and the transfer of monies from financial claims.

19. Upon information and belief, Applicant selected the CLAIMPAL Mark with knowledge of and intent to cause confusion with the PAYPAL Marks.

20. PayPal is not affiliated or connected with Applicant or its services; nor has PayPal endorsed or sponsored Applicant or its services.

21. Upon information and belief, PayPal began using its PAYPAL Marks, and enjoys priority as a result of the filing dates of its trademark registrations, well prior to the filing date of the application for the CLAIMPAL Mark (August 21, 2013).

FIRST GROUND FOR OPPOSITION: LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

22. PayPal incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 21, inclusive, as if fully set forth here.

23. Registration of Applicant's mark will injure PayPal by causing the public to be confused or mistaken into believing that the services provided by Applicant are endorsed, licensed, or sponsored by PayPal, or that Applicant's services are affiliated with PayPal. PayPal has no control over the nature and quality of the services offered by Applicant under the confusingly similar CLAIMPAL Mark, and PayPal's reputation and goodwill will be damaged and the value of the PAYPAL Marks jeopardized, all to PayPal's detriment.

24. Any defect, objection or fault found with Applicant's services marketed under the CLAIMPAL Mark would necessarily reflect upon and seriously injure the reputation that PayPal has established for the goods and services it offers in connection with the PAYPAL Marks.

25. Accordingly, registration of the mark herein opposed will damage PayPal because Applicant's mark is likely, when used on or in connection with the services described in the opposed application, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive. Thus, Applicant's mark is unregistrable under Sections 2(d) and 3 of the United States Trademark Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§1052 and 1053, and should be refused registration.

SECOND GROUND FOR OPPOSITION: DILUTION OF A FAMOUS MARK

26. PayPal incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 25, inclusive, as if fully set forth here.

27. Applicant uses or intends to use the CLAIMPAL Mark in commerce in the United States, as stated in the application herein opposed.

28. PAYPAL is a fanciful mark and is thus highly distinctive of PayPal's goods and services.

29. PayPal has used the PAYPAL Marks since at least October 1999 for online payment processing and money transfer services, and has expanded use of the PAYPAL Marks to other related goods and services, as alleged. PayPal has used the PAYPAL Marks throughout the United States and around the world.

30. PayPal has advertised and promoted the PAYPAL Marks through extensive internet advertising and promotion. PayPal and the PAYPAL Marks have enjoyed extensive media attention. As a result of the considerable publicity afforded the PAYPAL Marks, and the strong and loyal base of customers that PayPal enjoys for its goods and services, the PAYPAL Marks have a high degree of consumer recognition.

31. Apart from unauthorized infringing uses of such marks, which PayPal actively and diligently polices through its enforcement program, there is no material use of any highly similar mark by others.

32. Accordingly, when the public encounters the term PAYPAL, it immediately associates the term with PayPal, and thus the PAYPAL Marks are famous.

33. Upon information and belief, the PAYPAL Marks became famous before Applicant filed its application to register the CLAIMPAL Mark on August 21, 2013.

34. The CLAIMPAL Mark is highly similar to the PAYPAL Marks, and if Applicant and others are permitted to register marks similar to the PAYPAL Marks, the proliferation of such marks will blur and weaken the connection in consumers' minds between the PAYPAL Marks and PayPal's goods and services.

35. Upon information and belief, Applicant intended to create an association between its CLAIMPAL Mark and PayPal's PAYPAL Marks and trade name.

36. Accordingly, registration of the mark herein opposed is likely to dilute the distinctive quality of PayPal's famous PAYPAL Marks. Thus Applicant's mark is unregistrable pursuant to Sections 2(a)(d), 3, 13, and 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§1052(a)(d), 1053, 1063, 1125, and should be refused registration.

WHEREFORE, PayPal requests that Application Serial No. 86/044,185 be rejected, and that no registration be issued in connection with this application, and that this opposition be sustained in favor of PayPal.

Respectfully submitted,

PAYPAL INC.
