v.

Salt Armour, Inc.

Monique Tyson, Paralegal Specialist:

The Board notes that on December 12, 2014 applicant filed with the Board a copy of its request for production documents that were apparently served on counsel for opposer. However, initial disclosures, like requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process, should not be filed with the Board except when submitted (1) with a motion relating to discovery; or (2) in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment; or (3) under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or (4) as exhibits to a testimony deposition; or (5) in support of an objection to proffered evidence on the ground that the evidence should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery. See Trademark Rule 2.120(j)(8).

In view thereof, applicant is advised that the Board will give no further consideration to applicant's request for production, filed December 12, 2014.
