14. Opposer repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 13.

15. Applicant filed its intent-to-use-based Application on May 13, 2013.

16. Applicant's mark is confusingly similar to Opposer's BOSS Marks.

17. Applicant's intended use of its alleged mark on Applicant's Goods is calculated to trade off Opposer's goodwill in its BOSS Marks.

18. Upon information and belief, Opposer's Goods and Services and Applicant's Goods are likely to be offered, promoted and sold to the same class of purchasers.

19. Upon information and belief, Opposer's goods and services and Applicant's Goods are likely to be offered, promoted or sold in the same channels of commerce.

20. Opposer believes and alleges that Applicant's alleged mark, when applied to Applicant's Goods as listed in Application Serial No. 85875489, is likely to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive, and will deceive and mislead the trade and the purchasing public into believing that Opposer is the source of Applicant's Goods, that Opposer sponsors, approves or endorses Applicant's Goods, that Applicant is authorized, licensed or controlled by Opposer, or that Applicant is a division or subsidiary of, or in some way related to Opposer.

21. Applicant's alleged mark "so resembles a mark registered in the Patent and Trademark Office, or a mark . . . previously used in the United States and not abandoned, as to be likely, when applied to the goods of the applicant, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake, or to deceive." 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

22. If Applicant is permitted to register its alleged mark captioned above in connection with Applicant's Goods, confusion in trade resulting in damage and injury to Opposer would be caused and would result by reason of the confusingly similar nature of Applicant's alleged mark and Opposer's BOSS Marks. Furthermore, any misrepresentation, objection or fault found with Applicant's Goods promoted or sold under its alleged mark would necessarily reflect on and seriously injure the reputation that Opposer has established through its long and continuous use of its BOSS Marks.

23. If Applicant's Application is permitted to proceed to registration, Applicant would thereby obtain at least a prima facie exclusive right to use its alleged mark. This would be a source of further damage and injury to Opposer.

24. For the reasons set forth in the foregoing paragraphs, Applicant is not entitled to register its alleged mark and the Application should be denied in accordance with Section 2(d) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1052(d).

Dilution - 15 U.S.C. §1125(c)

25. Opposer repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 24.

26. Opposer's BOSS Marks became famous long before May 13, 2013, the filing date of Applicant's Application.

27. The similarity of Applicant's alleged mark and Opposer's famous BOSS Marks will create an association with Opposer's famous BOSS Marks "that impairs the distinctiveness of [Opposer's] famous mark." 15 U.S.C. §1125(c)(2)(B).

28. The similarity of Applicant's alleged mark and Opposer's famous BOSS Marks creates an association arising from the similarity between Applicant's alleged mark and Opposer's famous BOSS Marks that "harms the reputation of [Opposer's] famous mark." 15 U.S.C. §1125(c)(2)(C).

29. If Applicant's alleged mark is allowed to register, it will cause a likelihood of dilution by blurring and tarnishment of the distinctive quality of Opposer's famous BOSS Marks.

30. For the foregoing reasons, Opposer is being and will be further damaged by the registration of the mark BOSS CHICKS (App. No. 85875489) for Applicant's Goods.

WHEREFORE, Opposer prays that Application Serial No. 85875489 be refused, that registration of Applicant's alleged mark shown therein be refused and that this Opposition be sustained in favor of Opposer.

Opposer hereby gives notice under Rule 2.122(d) of the Trademark Rules of Practice that at hearing and in any appeal on this opposition proceeding, it will rely on Opposer's U.S. registrations referenced above in paragraphs 1 through 3 as evidence in support of this Notice of Opposition. Copies of these registrations are attached as Exhibit A hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

By: _____

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.* See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL
TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.
