CONSENTED MOTION TO SUSPEND PROCEEDINGS AND RESET DATES

Applicant hereby moves to suspend the proceedings in the captioned opposition for a period of sixty (60) days. Applicant respectfully requests this suspension, as well as a corresponding resetting of the discovery and testimony periods, in order to allow time for the parties to arrive at an amicable settlement arrangement concerning their respective marks.

The parties are actively engaged in settlement discussions toward resolution of the issues presented in this case. This request is made in good faith and in order to provide the parties with additional time to determine the final terms of settlement. This request is not being filed for the purpose of mere delay.

The requested suspension shall be subject to the right of either party to unilaterally direct that the proceedings be resumed at any time prior to the expiration of the sixty (60) days. Applicant has obtained the consent of Opposer, through Applicant's counsel of record to this suspension request.

Dated: Feb. 20, 2015

Respectfully submitted,
