Arduino S.R.L.

v.

Arduino, LLC

Cheryl S. Goodman, Administrative Trademark Judge:

On June 22, 2015, Arduino, LLC (“Applicant/Respondent”) filed a combined motion to consolidate Opposition No. 91221913 with already consolidated Cancellation No. 92060077 and Opposition No. 91221050 (parent case) and motion to suspend pending final determination of a civil action between the parties.¹

In view of the Board’s order dated July 27, 2015, Applicant’s/Respondent’s combined motion to consolidate and suspend is GRANTED as well taken. Opposition No. 91221913 is hereby added to the consolidated cases of which Opposition No. 91221050 is the “parent” case. The parties are reminded that all future filings for any of the consolidated cases should be filed in the parent case, and that all papers filed in the consolidated proceeding should include all proceeding numbers in ascending order.

Opposition No. 91221050 & 91221913
Cancellation No. 92060077

Proceedings herein remain suspended pending the dismissal or final disposition of the civil action between the parties, including all appeals.

Within twenty days after the final determination of the civil action, the interested party should notify the Board so that this case may be called up for appropriate action. In the event proceedings are resumed, trial dates will be reset as necessary.

During the suspension period, the parties must notify the Board of any address changes for the parties or their attorneys. In addition, the parties are to promptly inform the Board of any other related cases, even if they become aware of such cases during the suspension period.
