Jordi Nogues, S.L.

Karl Kochersperger, Paralegal Specialist:

Opposer's consented motion filed May 19, 2016 to extend Board-set deadlines by ninety days and to continue suspension is granted.

Accordingly, Opposer is allowed, within NINETY DAYS of the mailing date of this order, to file: (1) an amended notice of opposition as directed in footnote 3 of the Board's March 10, 2016 order; and (2) a motion for summary judgment on its claim that Applicant did not possess the requisite bona fide intent to use the applied-for mark at the time the involved application was filed, providing evidence of its standing to bring this action and any additional evidence it deems relevant to the issue. Opposer's brief, any brief filed in response to the motion, and any reply brief, shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.127(e)(1).

The proceeding remains SUSPENDED. The remaining discovery, disclosure, and trial dates will be reset upon resumption.
