DENTAL CHEWS

- made with finely ground pecan shells to provide natural fiber and help clean teeth
- includes turmeric and parsley for flavor
- added grooves and ridges to help scrape and remove plaque or tartar

VETERINARIAN
FORMULATED & DEVELOPED

These triple-action, dual-layer chews are packed with functional ingredients to keep dogs' mouths and bodies healthy and happy. Nourish Dental Chews have two layers that combine beneficial dental ingredients with important functional ingredients. The exterior is a grooved layer made with new, triple-action Pecode proprietary blend of finely ground pecan shell, kelp and turmeric extract that provides natural fiber, helps clean teeth and freshens breath. Inside, each chew has a functional layer dedicated to supporting hip and joint health, fresh breath, or skin and coat health. These veterinarian formulated and developed chews make cleaning dogs' teeth easier and more powerful with the addition of functional ingredients.

GRAIN FREE
DOG & CAT FOOD

WHAT GRAIN FREE IS SUPPOSED TO BE

- air-dried to keep ingredients fresh and maintain nutrition

This is an awesome shampoo for all dogs. It has a great powder smell - not overwhelming and leaves their coats soft and fluffy. I love using it on. my Aussies. Be sure to read the directions as this product is concentrated and has a 26:1 ratio. Will buy again for sure!

Best shampoo!

My little man Pepito always smells AMAZING when he is all suds up in this shampoo! The after effects on his coat are also a plus; super soft and the smell of baby powder remains in a soft underlying scent. I love it because no matter how careful you are bathing, it is inevitable to avoid getting shampoo in the eyes and this product proves to be gentle! LOVE IT! Now I have three chihuahuas Pepito, Rosarita, and Picante Monty; they all smell, look, and feel FABULOUS!

Smells nice

I bought this product because the puppy spray worked so well when my dog was a puppy. The powder smell really lasted so I thought this would just reinforce the powder smell if I used the shampoo as well. Well I was wrong...however it does smell ok.

Crazy Dog

I did not like this shampoo at all. It is way over priced, it does not smell very good, and it made my puppies hair look very dull and dry. It was hard to rinse out of her hair. It claims to be long lasting scent, but that is a huge over statement.

shampoo good; conditioner bad

Both the cortisone shampoo and conditioner by this brand (not reviewable here for some reason) work well for Itch relief. But the conditioner is greasy and impossible to rinse off, leaving my dog sticky. Dirt sticks to her and she starts to smell bad in a week or so. Means I have to wash her more often and I'd rather not.

clean, non-perfum smell.

This is my favorite product to reduce the itchy-scratchy dog, with a clean smell instead of a perfume smell. It's not a product that will treat a skin condition, rather soothe the skin and take away the itches. I wish it was stocked and sold in more stores.

It actually works

I was very skeptical of this product simply because I have been told a lot of these "de-shedding shampoos" have gotten a bad rep for not doing anything. I used this shampoo and lots of hair came off. Then once she was completely dried, I followed up the furminator and got a small amount of hair. So I think that the shampoo did most of the work by removing almost all of the undercoat, which was awesome. Plus, the smell is sooo nice and very refreshing.

It's that time of year for really bad shedding. Northman my pup is an Australian Kelpie/Norwegian Elkhound Mix with a medium length coat and dense undercoat. Today I stopped in Petsmart to see if I could find anything to help with the shedding. I found this shampoo as well as the conditioner and the KONG Zoom Groom Dog Brush. I used the zoom groom brush while shampooing him and you would not believe the amount of hair that came off him. I think it was a combination of the brush and shampoo and conditioner that really helped to loosen up all the hair. The shampoo and conditioner both have a pleasant smell. I would definitely recommend this product!

why didn't they list the scent on there

This product so far seems ok though I have only used it once and don't know that I want to use it again due to the smell. If I knew this was coconut scented I never would have bought it. I hate the smell of it but my dog is clean.

sanity saved - simply the best products out there,

A few years ago my groomer suggested I use the FURminator products on my Rescue Newfie. 5 years later and two more Newfoundland's and I still use only this product line. Newfies don't shed, they completely blow their coats, then shed the rest of the year. They have long dense water resistant coats that other products just don't penetrate through. I swear by this shampoo and the entire FURminator product line, they do exactly what they say they will. Below is a pic of one of my Newfies showing the signs of getting ready to blow her coat, that means one day they have hair and the next it's all on your floors, dull uneven coat, white tufts beginning to show and that dreadful skin flaking that comes up with the undercoat, then the after, one gorgeous, shiny and smooth happy puppy! Thank you!

Bought this and the conditioner to use on my Great Pyrenees. Her fur is very thick and this really worked well. Great fragrance and coat was shiny, very soft and helped with knots in coat too.

Highest Quality, Fresh, Neem Oil Organic comes from 'the miracle tree'. Uses include: neem oil insecticide, neem oil for hair... Available in neem oil gallon, neem oil spray, neem oil soap, neem oil shampoo, neem oil capsules, neem oil shampoo for pets...

Virgin Organic Neem Oil, cold-pressed extracted from the fruit kernels of the neem plant. It experiences a natural variation in color ranging from golden yellow or orange to dark greenish brown, and carries a powerful herbaceous aroma.

Neem oil is a popular natural ingredient used throughout the agricultural industry in farming techniques and applications. It provides farmers with an organic certified option as an insecticide in various pest management systems. In addition to industrial purposes, neem oil may be used in cosmetic, soap-making and personal care formulations.

Aging of skin is influenced by many factors. Some of them are genetic, over which we have little control. Where we can help, Neem Oil has been clinically shown to have great effects on the aging process. How?

- 1. Rich in Vitamin E- Vitamin E is a powerful natural antioxidant and thereby prevents tissue damage and wrinkle formation.
- 2. Loaded with omega-6, omega-9 fatty acids, and palmitic acid - Research studies cited by the University of Maryland, Medical Center shows Neem plays an important role in our bodies repair mechanisms of damaged skin cells. Neem Oil quickly and effectively repairs damaged skin and keeps it wrinkle free.
- 3. Anti-microbial and anti-inflammatory- Repeated skin infections cause cellular damage. Over time this stresses and weakens skin cells, which results in premature aging. This is very similar to repeat-damage caused by sunburns. The anti-microbial and anti-inflammatory properties of Neem provide a natural protection and act as a natural anti-aging agent.
- 4. Highly moisturizing- Neem supports skin's natural function to be elastic and protective. Similar to skin damage from microbes or excessive exposure to sun, repeated episodes of dry skin will lead to cracks and wrinkle formation.

Here at Snippers:

We guarantee you will LOVE the way your pet is treated and groomed. We'll treat YOUR pet the way we would want others to treat OURS with patience, love and understanding. Our staff consists of quality groomers with over 12+ years of experience. Finally, our goal is to provide professional grooming, and to treat your pets with the utmost care and respect that animals deserve.

We take pride in our work. Our customers' satisfaction is our number ONE priority!

EVERY DOG DESERVES A DAY! Snippers is a day spa for dogs and cats. We wanted to create an atmosphere that would be fun and inviting for your pet.

At Snippers, when your dog is not being washed, dried or groomed, it can wander around freely, playing with the other dogs. Your dog gets pats on the head, as well as belly scratches. He also gets treats and can drink water whenever he wants. He can leave nose prints on the store front window and bark when he wants. It doesn't bother anyone.

Snippers is a happy, lively, playful environment. We do not kennel your dog, unless he/she shows unmanageable aggression or has special needs. Our shop is an open space, so that all procedures can be viewed at all times, and so your dog never feels isolated. It is truly a place for dogs.

In addition, at Snippers, we understand that every dog is unique. In order to best serve your dog, we tailor each treatment to his or her specific needs. We choose the most beneficial combination of natural shampoos, conditioners, and the best techniques for drying and grooming. Please read our section on Services for more details.

If you are a current client at Snippers, we warmly thank you for your patronage. If you are not a client, we invite you to give us a try. We are always happy to make new friends and to expand our family.

The View co-hosts also spoke with hero Dan Lasko about his dog Wally. Their story depicts a rescue dog that rescued a hero. Dan was swearing into the Marine Corps on the morning of 9/11. He felt it was his calling to save his country. While serving he lost his left leg and received a traumatic brain injury. After the experience he suffered from PTSD. He was introduced to his dog Wally during recovery. Wally helped him physically and mentally. Dan is also the subject of a short documentary by Pedigree which shares his story.

Animal League visits 'The View' for annual 'Best in Show'

Local residents, animal shelter visit popular talk show

The popular daytime talk show “The View” hosted its third annual “Mutt Show” during the week of the American Kennel Club’s competition to bring attention to shelter animals and mixed breeds.

Presented by Pedigree, the show featured viewers’ dogs as well as shelter dogs — Mutt-i-grees — brought from North Shore Animal League America in Port Washington.

A panel of judges, including David Frei, of Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show fame, looked over the parade of pooches and chose “Best in Show” — Kable, whose trainer is Mike Malloy, East Rockaway resident and head behaviorist at NSALA

Happily, all the dogs featured on the show were adopted. Reality star Denise Richards adopted “Chocolate Chip.”

FIDO loves a shelter dog success story and this one makes us wiggly-waggly! Two Paws UP for Sunny and Casey !

NEW YORK, NY, July 19, 2012 - More shelter dogs across the U.S. may soon receive the star treatment thanks to a partnership between PEDIGREE® Food for Dogs and the Tony Award®-winning classic musical, ANNIE. At the heart of the partnership is the shared belief that every dog deserves a loving home, a principle central to the PEDIGREE® Brand's mission as well as the Broadway production of ANNIE.

Since its 1977 debut, all productions of ANNIE on Broadway have starred real-life shelter dogs as Sandy, Annie's adopted and loyal companion, with all of the dogs discovered and trained by 2011 Tony® Honor recipient William Berloni. Continuing that tradition, Berloni has found and will train Sunny, a dog rescued from a shelter in Houston, to star as Sandy in the new production of ANNIE. Her understudy, Casey, was rescued from a PEDIGREE- sponsored shelter near the brand's hometown in Nashville, Tennessee. With the help of PEDIGREE, both dogs playing Sandy are being provided professional nutrition by PEDIGREE® Food for Dogs and trained for their starring role using brand treats.

In a dual effort to promote dog adoption and provide shelters with resources, PEDIGREE and ANNIE have teamed up to help raise $1 million to help dogs find loving homes. For each ANNIE the Musical ticket sold through December 31, 2013, PEDIGREE will donate $2, up to $1 million, to PEDIGREE Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping dogs find loving homes. In addition, co-branded merchandise will be available at the theatre and online with 100 percent of the proceeds going to PEDIGREE Foundation.

"At PEDIGREE, we believe every dog deserves to have a loving home and to be well fed," PEDIGREE senior brand manager Lisa Campbell said. "Our goal with the ANNIE partnership is to drive awareness of the plight of homeless dogs and raise money to help even more shelter dogs find forever homes."

Sunny and Casey's journey from hard-knock shelter life to center stage as Sandy will be documented in a 30-minute TV special, "Annie's Search for Sandy," set to air on the NBC Owned Television Stations in October 2012. The special is being produced by Al Roker Entertainment and ANNIE Broadway LLC and is sponsored by PEDIGREE. It features 2011 Tony® Honor recipient William Berloni who is providing the raining for Sunny and Casey. Berloni works exclusively with rescued dogs and trained Sandy for the original 1977 Broadway production.

ANNIE opens November 8 at the Palace Theater (1567 Broadway at 47th Street). Previews begin October 3. Tickets are on sale now at Ticketmaster.com. For more information on The PEDIGREE® Adoption Drive and other brand initiatives, visit www.pedigree.com or www.facebook.com/pedigree.
