Dear United States Patent and Trademark Office
Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

This letter is to inform you, and apologize that because of recent family emergencies I was unable to follow up with opposition 91221521 in a timely manner, and I would like an extension to be able to reply to the best of my ability. My Mother passed away on April 22, 2015, and the weeks proceeding were mostly spent by her side with family. YOGATO is a very small, two person operation without any income as of yet, it is still in the very beginning stages of becoming a recognized business. We are unable to afford an attorney at the moment, and we would like more time to gather as much information as possible to help save our business from this small misunderstanding.

We were looking to settle with Yogitoes prior to us being held in default; again with the passing of my mother, this important time frame was overlooked. We feel as if Yogitoes and Yogato can come to an agreement without taking this to the next level. I have enclosed my mother's obituary to show the date of the occurrence. Again we sincerely apologize for missing this important deadline, and hope to resolve this fairly.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Daniel Troy Cronin, Vanessa Taborda Cronin
