Opposition No. 91224210

Vans, Inc.

v.

Malldesports Inc.

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On November 25, 2015, the Board issued a notice of default to Applicant because no answer had been filed.

No response to the notice of default has been filed.

Accordingly, judgment by default is hereby entered against Applicant, the opposition is sustained, and registration to Applicant is refused.¹ See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b), and Trademark Rule 2.106(a).

¹ Although the Board recognizes that Applicant's copy of the Board's November 25, 2015, default notice was returned as undeliverable by the U.S. Postal Service, see 5 TTAVBUE, the Board assumes that Applicant received notification of the default notice at Applicant's email address of record. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board notes that it is the responsibility of a party to a proceeding before the Board to ensure that the Board has the party's current correspondence address, including an email address, if applicable. TBMP § 117.07 (2015). If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party, as is the case here. Id.
