For Registration of United States Trademark Application Serial No. 86448551
Published for Opposition in the Official Gazette on April 14, 2015

Duke University, Plaintiff-Opposer vs Charlton Hlazo, Defendant-Applicant	OPPOSITION TO REGISTRATION OF MARK
---	---

Attorney Reference: DUKU9362

Duke University, a corporation of the State of North Carolina, with a principal place of business in Durham, North Carolina and business address at Office of University Counsel, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, believes that it will be damaged by registration of the mark shown in the above-identified application, and hereby opposes same.

The grounds for opposition are as follows:

1. Opposer is the owner of many marks consisting in whole or substantial part of the term DUKE and variants thereof. All such marks collectively are referred to hereafter as Opposer's Marks. For purposes of the current opposition proceeding, the marks relied upon as Opposer's Marks are those identified in the Notice of Opposition, including those set out in the registrations listed herein and in the exhibits, the common law marks listed herein and in the exhibits, and those marks listed on the ESTTA Cover Sheet for this pleading.
2. Since long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, and any other priority date to which Applicant might be entitled, Opposer directly and through licensees has provided a wide variety of educational, entertainment, medical, and other services under Opposer's Marks, including its famous DUKE marks and closely associated variants; has sold and/or provided directly and through licensees, in commerce, a multitude of products under said Marks, including clothing. Additional detail with respect to use of Opposer's Marks is set out hereafter, and in the registrations and exhibits.

3. Applicant seeks registration of a mark that predominantly contains the word DUKE, coupled with the word BY which merely implies that the following name is a licensed manufacturer and/or distributor of Opposer's products, pursuant to Section 1(b) of the Trademark Act (15 USC §1051(b)) for use in connection with:

Belts; Bottoms; Caps; Cloth bibs; Clothing for babies, toddlers and children, treated with fire and heat retardants, namely, pajamas, jackets, shirts, pants, jumpers; Drawers; Dusters; Eyeshades; Footwear; Gloves as clothing; Hats; Head wraps; Headbands for clothing; Hoods; Jackets; Jerseys; Mufflers; Pajamas; Ponchos; Shifts; Short sets; Shoulder wraps; Sports caps and hats; Sports shoes; Ties; Tops; Underwear; Wristbands

4. Opposer, directly and through licensees, has used Opposer's Marks in commerce on or in connection with identical and/or similar goods, including but not limited to the following:

Belts; bottoms; caps; bibs, including such bibs made of cloth; clothing for babies, toddlers and children, including but not limited to tops, bottoms, jumpers, pajamas, and outerwear; drawers in the nature of underwear; eyeshades including sunglasses; footwear; gloves; hats; head wraps; headbands; hooded clothing; jackets; jerseys; mufflers in the nature of scarves; pajamas; ponchos; dresses; shorts and tops; shoulder wraps; sports caps and hats; sports shoes; ties; tops; underwear; wristbands; and a host of other clothing and clothing accessories.

Opposer continues to use Opposer's Marks in commerce in connection with goods that are identical and/or substantially similar to those identified in Applicant's application. Opposer is identified by Opposer's Marks in connection with these goods.

5. Applicant has not alleged any earlier priority than the filing date of its application and on information and belief has no earlier date on which it can rely.

6. Use of Opposer's Marks by Opposer commenced in the early 1920's and has continued and expanded in interstate and foreign commerce, both directly and through licensees, continuously since that time. Opposer's priority with respect to each of Opposer's Marks asserted in this Opposition, for each of the uses identified therewith, long precedes the filing date of Applicant's application and any other priority date to which Applicant might be entitled, whether based on use or otherwise. Opposer's priority extends to and includes priority as to the goods listed in Paragraph 4 above.

7. Opposer is a famous university, with a world-renowned teaching hospital and medical facilities, and a well-known Division 1 athletic program, including a famous basketball program, and whose sports programs are followed by sports fans around the country. Opposer uses Opposer's Marks in connection with (among other things) its university activities, medical programs, and sports programs, and the marks are viewed by millions of fans each year, further reinforcing the link between Opposer and Opposer's Marks in the minds of the public.

8. Opposer owns at least the following United States Trademark Registrations and pending applications for Opposer's Marks, each of which includes the term DUKE or the letter "D" or a variant term that reminds viewers and customers of DUKE and reinforces the link between Opposer's Marks and Opposer. Each of the registrations listed below was lawfully issued, and is valid and subsisting. Copies of the electronic records provided by the United States Trademark Office for each registration and application listed below are attached hereto as Exhibits 1 through 24 and are incorporated herein by reference and for purpose of reliance.

9. Opposer's Marks include, in addition to the registered marks, marks consisting of the term DUKE and variants thereof in a variety of designs and fonts, used for substantially the same goods and services as are identified in the preceding paragraphs, including in the registrations; and include those common law marks identified in the list of such marks filed herewith (used for the goods and services identified therein), and those common law marks described elsewhere in this pleading, all of which are incorporated herein by reference.

9. Opposer's Marks serve to identify, and as an identity of, Opposer, such identification beginning long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, prior to any first date of use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and prior to any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought, and continuing to the present time.

10. Opposer's provision and promotion of its services and products to the public under Opposer's Marks for nearly a century has caused the public to strongly associate Opposer's Marks and the goods and services provided thereunder with Opposer, such association beginning long prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, prior to any first date of use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and prior to any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought, and continuing to the present time. Through those efforts, Opposer now has built substantial goodwill in Opposer's Marks that inures to the benefit of Opposer.

11. The mark DUKE has become famous, and is associated with and identifies Opposer. Opposer's mark DUKE became famous prior to the filing date of Applicant's application, any date of first use of Applicant's mark that Applicant is entitled to assert, and any other relevant priority date to which Applicant might be entitled with respect to the mark for which registration is sought; and said fame continues at present.

12. The fame of Opposer's aforesaid famous mark is so widespread and pervasive that consumers will expect that not only identical marks but also similar marks are associated with Opposer.

13. Opposer's fame and excellent and well-known reputation, and the close and long-time association of Opposer's Marks with Opposer are such that a connection with Opposer and Opposer's goods and services is likely to be presumed when the mark Applicant seeks to register is used in connection with the goods identified in the application.

14. For purposes of this application, evidence of any limitations with respect to use of the applied-for mark that allegedly have been or will in the future be adopted by Applicant or its licensees is irrelevant to the claims of likelihood of confusion in this proceeding, except to the extent (if any) that Applicant has incorporated express limitations into the application itself.

15. Applicant has not incorporated limitations on coloration of the mark and, if registered as currently proposed, Applicant's mark could presumptively be depicted and/or advertised in connection with Opposer's school colors. Moreover, Applicant's goods could and presumptively would be marketed in association with images depicting, and themes associated with, colleges, collegiate programs, including images and themes evocative of Opposer, Opposer's founder and his family, and Opposer's athletic teams, along with other indicia evocative of Opposer. Moreover, the mark could and presumptively would be marketed with oral articulation of the mark in a manner implying, as does the visual image, that Opposer's DUKE goods are being manufactured under a license issued by Opposer to Charlton, when such is not the case.

16. Applicant has not incorporated limitations on channels of trade or on markets, or adopted other limitations in an attempt to minimize the likelihood of confusion. The absence of such limitations further enhances the likelihood of a presumed connection and of confusion. Applicant's goods under the mark thus presumptively could be identified as "licensed" (without specification as to the licensor) and offered in commerce to the hundreds of thousands of persons who interact every year with Duke University and its medical centers; and they could be targeted to Duke University alumni and to Duke University's fans. The mark sought to be registered, used in connection with goods closely related to those provided under Opposer's DUKE Marks, presumptively would be marketed with images thematically evocative of Opposer and would presumptively be targeted at, and marketed through channels of commerce directed to, Opposer's athletes and fans as well as Opposer's alumni, employees, patients, students, potential students, and parents of students past, present, or future. The goods further could be provided on or adjacent to Duke University's campuses and at or adjacent to Duke-branded medical facilities in North Carolina and in other states. It must be presumed that the market and the channels of trade through which Applicant will offer goods bearing the mark sought to be registered are identical and closely related to those that are currently used by Opposer and that have been used by Opposer since long prior to any priority date to which Applicant might be entitled.

17. In short, the presumption of a connection, as well as a likelihood of confusion, is particularly likely and is enhanced because Applicant seeks to register and use its mark in a substantially unrestricted manner, presumptively in the same channels of trade, presumptively targeted to the same markets, and presumptively colored and otherwise configured and advertised so as to maximize the likelihood that consumers will associate and confuse Applicant's mark, used in connection with Applicant's identified goods, with Opposer and Opposer's goods and services offered under Opposer's well-known and famous DUKE Marks.

18. Opposer has established standards for the licensing of Opposer's Marks to ensure that products and services bearing Opposer's Marks protect the integrity and reputation of the institution, maintain and build upon the goodwill of the institution, and promote support for and increase awareness of the institution, its mission and goals. Consistent with its policies and in order to prevent tarnishment of its brand and its reputation, Opposer does not permit use of Opposer's Marks or confusingly similar marks associated with goods or services of uncertain quality, unregulated by Opposer.

19. Applicant seeks to register a mark incorporating a term that is substantially similar or identical to Opposer's Marks, including Opposer's famous mark DUKE, for goods that are closely related or identical to those with which Opposer's Marks are used.

20. Despite Applicant's claim of right to use the mark it seeks to register, in connection with goods similar or identical to those offered by Opposer, Applicant is not affiliated with, licensed by, or otherwise associated with Opposer. Opposer is not connected with the goods that Applicant provides, offers, or intends to offer under the mark sought to be registered.

21. The mark Applicant seeks to register is so similar to Opposer's Marks, and the goods in connection with which Applicant seeks to register the mark, are so similar to goods and services with which Opposer's Marks are used, that consumers are likely to associate Opposer with Applicant's marks. This association is particularly likely because Applicant seeks to register and use its mark in a substantially unrestricted manner, allowing use in substantially the same channels of trade, and in connection with substantially the same type of goods as are currently offered under Opposer's Marks.

22. When used as Applicant would be entitled to use its mark if registration were granted, Applicant's mark would be the same or so close an approximation of Opposer and Opposer's licensee's previously used names and identity that Applicant's mark would be recognized as connected with Opposer, uniquely and unmistakably pointing to Opposer, and its use would cause consumer confusion.

23. In view of the foregoing and the similarity of Opposer's prior-used and not abandoned Opposer's Marks to Applicant's applied-for mark, the related nature of the goods and services offered by Opposer and its licensees to the uses identified in Applicant's application, and the related and overlapping channels of commerce, it is further alleged that Applicant's mark, as currently applied for, identified, and described, so resembles Opposer's Marks as to be likely to cause confusion and mistake, and to dilute Opposer's rights in its famous mark DUKE.

24. Moreover, registration and/or use of Applicant's mark as sought in Applicant's application is likely to interfere with Opposer's use and exploitation of Opposer's Marks, to falsely suggest a connection with Opposer, and to diminish Opposer's rights in Opposer's Marks and the distinctive quality thereof and the goodwill associated therewith which presently inures to the benefit of Opposer.

WHEREFORE, Opposer requests that Applicant's application be denied.

This 13th day of October, 2015.
