NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Opposer PayPal, Inc. (“PayPal”) is a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at 2065 Hamilton Avenue, San Jose, CA 95125 (“Opposer” or “PayPal”). PayPal believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the mark shown in Application Serial No. 86/597,079, filed April 15, 2015 by Processing Pros, L.P. (“Applicant”) and hereby opposes this application under the provisions of 15 U.S.C. § 1063 (as amended).

The Commissioner for Trademarks is hereby authorized to draw on the deposit account No. 501349, Ref. 042146.000263 for any necessary fees.

Application Serial No. 86/597,079 was filed on April 15, 2015 for the mark VEEMOPAY (hereinafter “the VEEMOPAY Mark” or “Applicant’s Mark”) for “leasing point-of-sale payment processing equipment and automated teller machines to merchants” in International Class 35, and “merchant services, namely, payment transaction processing services” in Class 36 (“the Application”). The Application is based upon intent-to-use, and was published for opposition on September 22, 2015.

A request for extension of time was filed on October 20, 2015. This Notice of Opposition is timely filed on January 20, 2016.

As grounds for the opposition, it is alleged that:

PAYPAL’S BUSINESS

1. Founded in 1998, PayPal, Inc. is one of the world’s top online payment processing service companies. PayPal prides itself in being the more secure, safer, easier way to pay and get paid online. In most countries around the world, PayPal’s customers can pay through credit cards or account balances, and in some countries, through bank accounts or buyer credit – without exposing their financial information to merchants.

2. PayPal has registered over 800 million user active accounts worldwide, servicing 203 markets in 26 currencies. PayPal processes about 9.3 million payments every day for its customers. In 2014, PayPal was ranked among the 100 Most Valuable Global Brands, coming in at No. 97 with an estimated value of $9.8 billion, according to the BrandZ annual survey of 2014.

3. PayPal owns a mobile and social payment transaction and processing platform that is offered under the mark VENMO. PayPal’s VENMO goods and services allow customers to transfer money securely through their mobile phones or through Venmo’s web-based interface online, all offered under the name and mark VENMO. The VENMO service and mobile application allow users to find and connect with friends and other users who have created a VENMO account, share updates, and communicate through the VENMO service and mobile application.

4. PayPal’s VENMO services enjoy widespread reputation as high-quality, secure, reliable, and user-friendly payment options in the United States.

5. PayPal's VENMO goods and services have received numerous awards for excellence, including winning the 2015 New Media Award's Web Awards Competition for having the best "app" in the payments service industry.

VENMO MARKS

6. PayPal's VENMO financial payment services were initially launched in April 2010, and use in interstate commerce commenced in March 2012. Since that time, the coined and inherently distinctive VENMO mark has been used continuously, prominently, and conspicuously in interstate commerce in the United States in connection with its goods and services.

7. PayPal is the owner of numerous United States registrations for the mark VENMO and variations thereof on the Principal Register (in word mark form and in stylized or design form). These registrations cover a variety of goods and services. Each of these registrations is valid and subsisting:

EXHIBIT	TRADEMARK	REG. NO.	REG. DATE	CLASS(ES)
A	VENMO	4371630	July 23, 2013	36
B	venmo	4371674	July 23, 2013	36
C	VENMO TOUCH	4507016	May 7, 2013	36
D	VENMO PAYOUTS	4499327	May 7, 2013	36

8. In addition to registrations noted above, PayPal owns a number of pending U.S. applications to register marks that extend its family of VENMO marks, including the following:

EXHIBIT	TRADEMARK	APPL. NO.	APPL. DATE	CLASS(ES)
E	VENMO CHECKOUT	85/793,329	December 3, 2012	36
F	VENMO INSTANT CHECKOUT	85/942,546	May 24, 2013	36
G	VENMO CONNECT	85/793,315	May 7, 2013	36

9. PayPal also has extensive common law rights in and to the VENMO marks, and it uses these marks extensively with its financial services and related goods and services throughout the United States. Collectively these registrations, applications, and common law rights are referred to herein as the “VENMO Marks.”

10. As a result of PayPal’s widespread use of the VENMO Marks in the United States, their extensive advertising and promotion, continuous and unsolicited media coverage, the high degree of consumer recognition of the VENMO Marks, PayPal’s vast customer base under the VENMO MARKS, and the uniqueness of the VENMO Marks in the field, among other factors, the VENMO Marks are famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. 1125(c).

11. VENMO is an invented, fanciful mark that is highly distinctive. The term VENMO has no meaning as applied to financial services or to any of the other goods and services covered by PayPal’s registrations or in connection with which PayPal uses the PAYPAL Marks.

12. PayPal has expended considerable effort and expense in promoting the VENMO Marks, and the goods and services offered in connection with these marks, both in the United States and internationally.

13. As a result of PayPal’s widespread use of the VENMO Marks, extensive Internet, television, and print advertising and promotion, continuous and unsolicited media coverage, the high degree of consumer recognition of the VENMO Marks, the strong and loyal base of customers that PayPal enjoys for the goods and services offered under the VENMO Marks, numerous trademark registrations, and the absence of any material use of any highly similar mark by others, among other factors, the VENMO Marks are famous within the meaning of Section 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(c).

APPLICANT AND ITS PENDING APPLICATION

14. Applicant seeks to register the VEEMOPAY Mark in connection with “leasing point-of-sale payment processing equipment and automated teller machines to merchants” in International Class 35, and “merchant services, namely, payment transaction processing services” in Class 36. The Application was published for opposition on September 22, 2015.

15. Applicant’s VEEMOPAY Mark is highly similar to the VENMO Marks. The leading and dominant element of Applicant Mark is VEEMO, which is nearly identical to VENMO. VEEMO and VENMO differ by but one letter. Applicant’s mark derives all its source identifying significance from the VEEMO element; the word PAY as a suffix has little to no source identifying significance because it is descriptive for its claimed services, leasing of payment processing equipment and offering payment transaction processing services.

16. The PAY element as a suffix has also come to be synonymous with near-field communication payment systems (“NFC systems”) in the eyes of the relevant consumer. There have been a great number of well-publicized PAY-suffixed entries into the payment processing field, including APPLE PAY, ANDROID PAY, SAMSUNG PAY, and CHASE PAY, among others. These entries increase the likelihood that consumers would expect a similar service under the mark VENMO PAY, which is nearly identical to VEEMOPAY.

17. The services claimed in the VEEMOPAY Application are identical or nearly identical to those goods and services offered under the VENMO Marks. Applicant’s Class 36 payment transaction processing services are identical to the Class 36 services claimed in the VENMO registrations, “electronic transfer of money for others; providing electronic processing of electronic funds transfer, ACH, credit card, debit card, electronic check and electronic, mobile and online payments.”

18. Applicant’s Class 35 claim is for the leasing of point-of-sale payment processing equipment. These services are highly related to and complementary with payment processing services, since Applicant intends to provide the very equipment necessary to enable Class 36 payment processing services. These Class 35 services are also within the natural zone of expansion of the VENMO Marks. As evidence of this, PayPal expanded its payment processing services to offer point-of-sale payment processing equipment under the mark PAYPAL HERE. Again, consumers may mistakenly believe that VEEMOPAY point-of-sale payment processing equipment is actually Venmo’s point-of sale NFC payment system.

19. Upon information and belief, Applicant selected the VEEMOPAY Mark with knowledge of and intent to cause confusion with the VENMO Marks.

20. PayPal is not affiliated or connected with Applicant or its services; nor has PayPal endorsed or sponsored Applicant or its services.

21. There is no issue of priority. PayPal’s VENMO Marks registered prior on July 23, 2013, well prior VEEMOPAY INSERT application date. Moreover, the VEEMOPAY application is based on intent-to-use, while the VENMO Marks have been in use since at least as early as 2010, and in use in interstate commerce since at least as early as 2012.

FIRST GROUND FOR OPPOSITION: LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

22. PayPal incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 21, inclusive, as if fully set forth here.

23. The VENMO Marks have been in use since 2010, used in interstate commerce since 2012, and they have been in continuous use since their adoption.

24. Registration of Applicant's mark will injure PayPal by causing the public to be confused or mistaken into believing that the services provided by Applicant are endorsed, licensed, or sponsored by PayPal, that Applicant's services are affiliated with PayPal, or that Applicant's services are compatible with the VENMO goods and services. PayPal has no control over the nature and quality of the services offered by Applicant under the confusingly similar VEEMOPAY Mark, and PayPal's reputation and goodwill will be damaged and the value of the VENMO Marks jeopardized, all to PayPal's detriment.

25. Any defect, objection or fault found with Applicant's services marketed under the VEEMOPAY Mark would necessarily reflect upon and seriously injure the reputation that PayPal has established for the goods and services it offers in connection with the VENMO Marks. The reputation for security is particularly important in the payment processing field.

26. Accordingly, registration of the mark herein opposed will damage PayPal because Applicant's mark is likely, when used on or in connection with the services described in the opposed application, to cause confusion, or to cause mistake or to deceive. Thus, Applicant's mark is unregistrable under Sections 2(d) and 3 of the United States Trademark Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§1052 and 1053, and should be refused registration.

SECOND GROUND FOR OPPOSITION: DILUTION OF A FAMOUS MARK

27. PayPal incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 26, inclusive, as if fully set forth here.

28. Applicant intends to use the VEEMOPAY Mark in commerce in the United States, as stated in the Application herein opposed.

29. VENMO is a fanciful mark and is thus highly distinctive of PayPal's goods and services.

30. The VENMO Marks have been in use since 2010, used in interstate commerce since 2012, and they have been in continuous use since their adoption.

31. PayPal has advertised and promoted the VENMO Marks through extensive internet advertising and promotion. The VENMO Marks, and the goods and services offered under those marks, have enjoyed extensive media attention. As a result of the considerable publicity afforded the VENMO Marks, and the strong and loyal base of customers that PayPal enjoys for its goods and services, the VENMO Marks have a high degree of consumer recognition.

32. Apart from unauthorized infringing uses of such marks, which PayPal actively and diligently polices through its enforcement program, there is no material use of any highly similar mark by others.

33. Accordingly, when members of the public encounter the term VENMO in any context, they immediately associate the term with the VENMO goods and services, and thus the VENMO Marks are famous.

34. Upon information and belief, the VENMO Marks became famous before Applicant filed its application to register the VEEMOPAY Mark on April 15, 2015, and before Applicant commenced any use of the VEEMOPAY Mark, if any use has begun.

35. The VEEMOPAY Mark is highly similar to the VENMO Marks, and if Applicant and others are permitted to register marks similar to the VENMO Marks, the proliferation of such marks will blur and weaken the distinctiveness of the VENMO Marks.

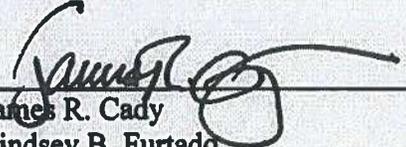

36. Accordingly, registration of the mark herein opposed is likely to dilute the distinctive quality of PayPal's famous VENMO Marks. Thus Applicant's mark is unregistrable pursuant to Sections 2(a)(d), 3, 13, and 43(c) of the United States Trademark Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. §§1052(a)(d), 1053, 1063, 1125, and should be refused registration.

WHEREFORE, PayPal requests that Application Serial No. 86/597,079 be rejected, and that no registration be issued in connection with this application, and that this opposition be sustained in favor of PayPal.

Respectfully submitted,

PAYPAL INC.
