A&E Television Networks, LLC

v.

Derek Christopher, Inc.

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On April 13, 2016, the Board issued a notice of default to Applicant because no answer had been filed.¹

No response to the notice of default has been filed.

Accordingly, judgment by default is hereby entered against Applicant, the opposition is sustained, and registration to Applicant is refused. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b), and Trademark Rule 2.106(a).

¹ The Board is aware that Applicant's copy of the Board's order issued April 13, 2016 was returned by the United States Postal Service as undeliverable mail. Although the copy of the order (Docket No. 5) was returned to the Board the record shows that the Board's order issued February 17, 2016 (Docket No. 2) which provides the due date for Applicant's answer has not been returned as being undeliverable to Applicant. It is Applicant's responsibility to ensure that the Board has its current correspondence address. If a party fails to notify the Board of a change of address, with the result that the Board is unable to serve correspondence on the party, default judgment may be entered against the party. See TBMP § 117.07.
