-Decommissioning and packing of laboratory and production equipment.

-Finishing the scaling up a new line of nail products.

-Selecting and qualifying new vendors and suppliers before July 2016.

3. More time was needed to collect evidence and information to counter allegations made by the Opposer.
4. Applicant has corrected the missed action by submitting a request for the extension of the deadline and subsequently submitted an answer to the Opposition on June 2nd, 2016.

With regards to filing an amended answer, the Opposer's attorney is currently working on a mutually beneficial agreement and has advised the Applicant to withhold filing an amended answer until an agreement is reached. Applicant will take the next step as required by the Board depending the outcome of the agreement.

Applicant hereby requests the Board to not enter the default judgement against the case.

Respectfully submitted,

ADVANCED POLYMER INC.
