Opposition No. 91227003

Intuit, Inc.

v.

Suitey, Inc.

Jennifer Krisp, Interlocutory Attorney:

The Board notes Applicant's August 23, 2016 consented motion to extend time to file an answer to the notice of opposition, and to extend all discovery and trial dates. Applicant's motion is the fifth filed in this proceeding wherein Applicant did not provide proof of service of the filing to Opposer's correspondence address of record in this proceeding.

In the Board's July 29, 2016 order, the Board advised the parties that any future filings on behalf of Applicant in this proceeding which do not indicate proof of service thereof on Opposer, to Opposer's correspondence address of record in this proceeding at the time of filing, may be denied consideration.

In view thereof, Applicant is allowed until seven (7) days from the mailing date of this order in which to file with the Board proof of service of its August 23, 2016 motion to Opposer at Opposer's correspondence address of record, failing which Applicant's motion will receive no consideration.
