FISERV, INC.

Opposer,

v.

PUSHPAY IP LIMITED

Applicant.

Opposition No. _____

Application Serial No. 86/559,822

Filing Date: March 10, 2015

Published: November 17, 2015

NOTICE OF OPPOSITION

Fiserv, Inc. (“Opposer”), a Wisconsin corporation, located at 255 Fiserv Drive, Brookfield, Wisconsin 53045, believes that it will be damaged by the registration of the mark P, in standard characters, shown in trademark application Serial No. 86/559,822 filed by Pushpay IP Limited (“Applicant”), a New Zealand limited company, located at 22 Viaduct Harbour Avenue, Suite 2, Ground Floor, Microsoft House, Auckland 1010, New Zealand and hereby opposes the same. In support of its Opposition, Opposer states as follows:

Background

1. Opposer owns the following United States trademark application and registration for a stylized P mark (“Opposer’s P Mark”) for the goods and services identified in the chart below (“Opposer’s Goods & Services”). Printouts of the current status and title of the P Marks from the United States Patent and Trademark Office’s (“USPTO’s”) Trademark Status & Document Retrieval (TSDR) database are attached as Exhibit A.

Mark	App./Reg. Number	File/Reg. Date	Services / Date of First Use
“Stylized P Mark” 	App. Ser. No. 86/940,711	Filing Date: March 15, 2016	“Computer application software for mobile phones and handheld computing devices, namely, electronic payment and funds transfer software that accommodates multiple types of payment transactions from a mobile phone and wireless communication device” in International Class 9 “Online banking services accessible by means of downloadable mobile applications; financial transaction services, namely, providing secure transaction and payment options accessible by means of downloadable applications operating on a wireless device; electronic debit card transaction processing services accessible by means of downloadable mobile applications; electronic funds transfer services accessible by users initiating electronic funds transfer requests using a downloadable application operating on a wireless device; and electronic payment services provided via a mobile application” in International Class 36 “Software as a service (SaaS) services featuring software to enable users to initiate banking and financial transactions, namely, software to initiate electronic funds transfers, electronic payments, person-to-person money transfers, and person-to-person electronic payments; and software as a service (SaaS) services featuring software to enable users to access transaction and account information in connection with electronic funds transfers and electronic payments” in International Class 42 (June 10, 2012)

Mark	App./Reg. Number	File/Reg. Date	Services / Date of First Use
“Stylized P Mark” 	Reg. No. 4,446,321	Reg. Date: Dec. 10, 2013	“Downloadable computer software to enable users to initiate banking and financial transactions via a wireless communication device, namely, software to initiate electronic funds transfers, electronic payments, person-to person money transfers, and person-to-person electronic payments; downloadable computer software to enable users to request that another individual initiate an electronic funds transfer or electronic payment; downloadable computer software to enable users to access transaction and account information in connection with electronic funds transfers and electronic payments” in International Class 9 (June 10, 2012)

2. Opposer’s Reg. No. 4,446,321 for Opposer’s P Mark constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity of the mark, Opposer’s ownership thereof, and of Opposer’s exclusive right to use the mark in connection with the goods identified in the registration (15 U.S.C. § 1115(a)).

3. Since at least as early as June 2012, Opposer has used its P Mark for Opposer’s Goods and Services, which include a mobile application as well as financial services and software as services (SaaS) services for electronic payments and electronic funds transfers.

4. Opposer has expended a great deal of time, effort and money in the promotion and advertisement of Opposer’s Goods and Services offered under its P Mark. As a result of Opposer’s extensive and continuous promotion and advertisement of Opposer’s Goods and Services offered under the P Mark, Opposer has acquired valuable goodwill in the P Mark, and the P Mark indicates that Opposer is the source of Opposer's Goods and Services.

5. Opposer owns and operates the website located at www.popmoney.com and uses this website to promote Opposer's Goods and Services offered under Opposer's P Mark. Opposer's P Mark is also prominently displayed in connection with its mobile application available from the Google Play and iTunes app stores.

6. Applicant also offers financial services through a mobile application, as described on Applicant's website at www.pushpay.com, and advertises that its mobile application is available from the Google Play and iTunes app stores.

7. On March 10, 2015, Applicant filed an intent-to use application, assigned Serial No. 86/559,822, to register the mark P in standard characters ("Applicant's P Mark") for the following goods and services ("Applicant's Goods and Services"):

Computer software for use in database management, use as a spreadsheet, and word processing; Computer software for facilitating financial transactions, namely, e-commerce software to allow users to perform electronic business transactions via global computer network; Apparatus for recording, transmission or reproduction of sound or images; Computer application software for mobile phones and handheld computing devices, namely, electronic financial platform software that accommodates multiple types of payment and debt transactions in an integrated mobile phone, PDA, and web based environment for use in payment processing and transactions, and software for use in payment transaction processing " in International Class 9;

Advertising services; Business management; Business administration services; Providing office functions in International Class 35;

Financial services rendered in connection with the issuance, receipt and transfer of lines of credit, namely, credit processing services; Financial services, namely, providing electronic transfer of a virtual currency for use by members of an on-line community via a global computer network; Financial services, namely, business fundraising provided over a computer network such as the Internet and providing on-line stored value accounts in an electronic commerce environment; Financial affairs, namely, financial information, management and analysis services; Monetary affairs services in the form of monetary strategy consultation and research and monetary exchange operations; Financial and monetary affairs transaction management services, namely, providing secure commercial transaction services and payment options and providing an internet website portal in the field of financial transaction and payment processing services; Payment processing, namely, credit card and debit card transaction processing services; Online payment and transaction processing services; Financial payment and financial transaction services in the form of credit card, debit card loyalty program and payment transaction processing services; Financial transaction services, namely, providing secure commercial transactions and payment options; Financial transaction services, namely, providing secure commercial transactions and payment options using a mobile device at a point of sale; Merchant services, namely, payment transaction processing services” in International Class 36.

8. Opposer applied to register and used its P Mark for Opposer’s Goods and Services before the March 10, 2015 filing date for the Applicant’s P Mark and before Applicant used Applicant’s P Mark.

9. Opposer’s P Mark has priority over Applicant’s P Mark.

10. Applicant’s P Mark is a standard character mark without a claim to any particular font style, size or color.

11. As a standard character mark, Applicant’s P Mark is identical in appearance, sound and commercial impression to Opposer’s P Mark.

12. Some of Applicant’s Goods and Services are identical to Opposer’s Goods and Services.

13. All of Applicant’s Goods and Services are closely related to Opposer’s Goods and Services.

14. Opposer’s Goods and Services and Applicant’s Goods and Services are offered and sold through the same channels of trade to the same consumers. For example, Opposer and Applicant both offer mobile applications through the Google Play and iTunes app stores.

15. Applicant’s website describes Applicant’s services offered in connection with Applicant’s P Mark as mobile phone applications for electronic payments, which are identical to Opposer’s Goods and Services.

16. Applicant does not have permission from Opposer to use or register Applicant's P Mark.

17. Applicant's P Mark for Applicant's Goods and Services is likely to cause confusion with Opposer's P Mark for Opposer's Goods and Services.

18. Further, the registration of Applicant's P Mark in standard characters, if granted, would be considered at least prima facie evidence of Applicant's exclusive right to use the P Mark in any font style, size or color, including in the same font style, size and color as Opposer's P Mark.

19. Due to Opposer's priority and continuous use of its P Mark and the likelihood of confusion alleged above, Applicant is not entitled to the registration sought, and said registration, if allowed, would be a source of injury and damage to Opposer under the provisions of Section 2 of the U.S. Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. §1052.

WHEREFORE, Opposer requests that the opposition be sustained and that the registration sought by Applicant be refused.

Dated this 13th day of May, 2016

Respectfully submitted,
