v.

Wendy Poore

By the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board:

On September 26, 2016, the parties filed a stipulated motion to amend Applicant's involved application Serial No. 86370036 and to withdraw the opposition without prejudice, contingent upon entry of the amendment. By the proposed amendment applicant seeks to amend the recitation of services by adding the language shown in bold below:

Educational and entertainment services, namely, a continuing program about home buying and selling, real estate management, building repair, home improvement, building renovation and interior decorating accessible by means of radio, television, cable television, satellite, audio, video and computer networks; entertainment services, namely, providing non-downloadable, prerecorded audio and visual recordings and articles featuring content on home buying and selling, real estate management, building repair, home improvement, building renovation and interior decorating, all on-line via a global computer network; providing a website featuring blogs and non-downloadable publications in the nature of articles in the field of home buying and selling, real estate management, building repair, home improvement, building renovation and interior decorating; entertainment services, namely, a multimedia program series featuring subjects of general human interest distributed via radio, television, cable television, satellite, audio, video and computer networks; entertainment services, namely, an ongoing television series featuring subjects of general human interest; all the foregoing not relating to sports or a sports team, league, mascot or stadium.

Inasmuch as the amendment is clearly limiting in nature as required by Trademark Rule 2.71(a), and because Opposer consents thereto, the amendment is approved and entered. See Trademark Rule 2.133(a).

The contingency in Opposer's withdrawal having now been met, the opposition is dismissed without prejudice.
