IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

CYBERNET ENTERTAINMENT, LLC

Opposer;

v.

MICHAEL R.RADCLIFF

Applicant.

In re App. No: 86700538 For the Mark: KINK STARTER App. Filed: June 19, 2017

MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO ANSWER

Applicant hereby motions to the court that the Applicant be granted 30 more days to file an answer as Applicant was very sick and hospitalized and has had a long recovery period during the period granted Applicant to respond which caused the delay and for the same reason applicant hereby requests the court deny Opposer's default motion. If the request for 30 more days to answer is granted it will timely be filed.

Applicant to appear and answer through counsel, Richard Mark Blank, Esquire under special circumstances.

/Richard Blank/
Attorney for Applicant

Dear Julien:

I request your consent to withdraw your motion requesting the Judge grant default and consent to the additional 30 days to respond as additional time to answer by July 19, 2017 and move the other dates accordingly for the reasons set forth in our motion filed today.

Regards,

/Richard Blank/
