Re: Galleon S.A. v. Havana Club
Holding S.A. Cancellation No. 24,108

Dear Mr. Leroy:

This is in response to your voice message about a proposed telephone conference on Tuesday morning. I am scheduled to appear in federal court in Illinois on Tuesday and will be unavailable for such a conference. Unless something unforeseen occurs, I should be back in the office later that week.

I note that your firm does not appear to have taken the appropriate steps to act on behalf of Cubaexport in the above-captioned proceeding and have not complied with the relevant provisions of the Board's Order regarding service. Therefore, the telephonic conference you requested does not seem countenanced by the TTAB rules.

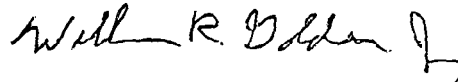

If Mr. Zervas decides to go forward with a conference, I ask that I be joined along with the other attorneys of record in any telephonic conference with Mr. Zervas in which the scheduling of that conference is to be discussed.

Sincerely,

William R. Golden, Jr.
