Motion For Default Judgment

Petitioner NexPress Solutions, LLC, pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 2.114(a) and through its undersigned attorneys, requests that the Board enter a default judgment in favor of Petitioner and cancel the registrations at issue.

This cancellation was initiated on December 20, 2002, and, pursuant to the applicable rules, the Registrant was allowed 40 days to file an answer. The answer was therefore due to be filed on January 29, 2003. Petitioner has not been served with an answer to date, and the PTO website does not indicate that an answer has been filed.

Petitioner therefore submits that the Registrant is in default and therefore respectfully requests that the Board enter a default judgment in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
