

On March 14, 2003, the Board issued its Notice of Mailing of Notice of Petition for Cancellation and Scheduling Order ("Order"). With that Order, the Board served the Notice of Cancellation on Registrant.

The Order required Registrant to respond to the Petition for Cancellation within forty days of the mailing date of the Order. Accordingly, the last day for Registrant to respond to the Petition for Cancellation was April 23, 2003.

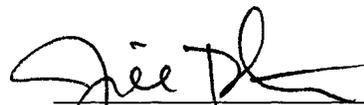

To date, Petitioner has not received a responsive pleading to the Notice of Petition for Cancellation, nor has Petitioner been contacted by Registrant requesting an extension of time in which to respond.

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 2.106(a), Registrant is in default, and the Board should therefore enter default against Registrant.

Accordingly, Petitioner requests that default be entered against Registrant in this cancellation proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Dated: July 1, 2003
