v.

International Gold Star
Trading Corp.

Andrew P. Baxley, Interlocutory Attorney:

Respondent's request that the deposition transcript that it filed on August 11, 2008 be kept confidential is granted pending respondent's compliance with the following.

Respondent is advised that only those pages which actually contain information which is truly confidential in nature, such as sales and advertising figures and customer names, should be marked "confidential" and filed as confidential material. When parts of a paper or document are marked "confidential" and filed under seal, the submitting party should also file in the normal manner a copy of the paper or document in question, with the confidential matter redacted therefrom, for the file record. Board proceedings are open to the public, and with the exception of pages which contain information which is truly confidential in nature, a party's filings may not be shielded from public view by marking them "confidential" and filing them under seal. See Trademark Rules 2.27(d) and (e).

Respondent is hereby ordered to file, for the public record, a redacted copy of such deposition transcript within thirty days of the mailing date set forth in this order, failing which the previously filed transcript will be placed in the public record.
