MS. LATICIA HARRISON
US Patent and Trademark
Trademark Trial and Appeals Board

Dear Madam:

Both my wife and I appeal to the board to let us keep our trademark. We have been using the Charleston child name for at least 15 years, and up to this day, we are still using it.

In this letter, I shall refer to the other owner of Charleston child as the other party to avoid confusion. The other party's lawyer, Attorney Fields' claims are completely untrue. To substantiate my claims, I enclosed two witnesses' testimony and our label.

In addition, it should be noted that we have sent the owners of the other Charleston child several registered letters requesting them not to use our name however, our request fell on deaf ears. We are even more concerned now because it appears to me that the other party also wants to acquire our trademark.

We hope that the board's decision will be in our favor.

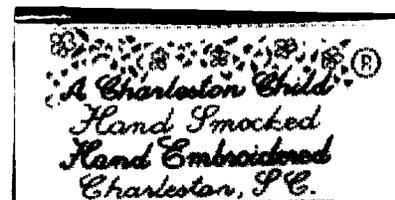

Sincerely yours,

Ronald Hunter
