

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
Trademark Trial and Appeal Board
P.O. Box 1451
Alexandria, VA 22313-1451

Mailed: November 28, 2006

Cancellation No. 92044697

ACM Enterprises, Inc.

v.

Jeannette Martello

Ann Linnehan, Interlocutory Attorney

This case now comes up for consideration of petitioner's motion (filed April 21, 2006) to compel discovery.¹ The motion has been fully briefed.

By way of background, on February 22, 2006, the last day of the discovery period as last reset, petitioner served its Second Request for Production of Documents, Second Set of Interrogatories, and Second Request for Admissions to Respondent. Respondent's responses to such requests were due on March 24, 2006. Respondent requested, and petitioner granted, two extensions to respond to such requests totaling three weeks of time, thereby setting the deadline for April 14, 2006. On April 14, 2006, petitioner denied respondent's third request for an extension to respond. On such date, petitioner also refused to agree to stipulate to extend the

¹ The Board notes that opposer also filed a motion to test the sufficiency of responses to admissions. The issues of such discovery and testimony periods to allow more time to resolve the issues between the parties.

Cancellation No. 92044697

In support of its motion, petitioner asserts that responses to its discovery requests were not received until April 19, 2006 and such responses were incomplete and did not provide any documents.

In contesting this motion, respondent asserts that petitioner's motion to compel is premature inasmuch as petitioner has failed to make a sufficient good faith effort, as required by Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(1), to resolve the parties' discovery dispute prior to seeking Board intervention.

In response thereto, petitioner asserts that because it provided respondent the courtesy of an additional three weeks of time to respond to its requests it was left with very little time to review any responses and to communicate with respondent. Petitioner argues that upon receipt of the responses on April 19, 2006, it only had three days to review the responses, communicate with respondent by telephone and written letter, and then prepare its motion to compel by the April 21, 2006 deadline.²

Upon careful review of all the circumstances revealed in the documents submitted by the parties in question, the motion were subsequently resolved between the parties and, consequently, will receive no consideration herein.

Cancellation No. 92044697

Board agrees with respondent that petitioner has failed to make a sufficient good faith effort, as required by Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(1), to resolve the parties' discovery dispute prior to seeking Board intervention Board. See Angelica Corporation v. Collins & Airman Corporation, 183 USPQ 378 (TTAB 1974); Cool Ray, Inc. v. Eye Care, Inc., 183 USPQ 618 (TTAB 1974); Varian Associates v. Fairfield-Noble Corporation, 188 USPQ 581 (TTAB 1975); and J.B. Williams Company, Inc. v. Pepsodent G.m.b.H., 188 USPQ 577 (TTAB 1975).

Prior to filing its motion, petitioner demonstrated a history of cooperation with respondent by granting respondent's requests for an extension on more than one occasion. By serving the discovery requests at issue on the final day of discovery and by agreeing to the extensions requested by respondent, petitioner left itself little time to resolve the issues presented in its motion. Petitioner's only effort to resolve the parties' discovery dispute consisted of a single telephone call made on April 20, 2006 and a letter sent to respondent on the same day, i.e., the day before it filed the motion to compel. As such, petitioner failed to allow respondent any meaningful opportunity to confer with petitioner to discuss the issues raised and to attempt to resolve the parties' discovery dispute prior to filing the motion to compel. The more appropriate course of action would have been for petitioner to agree to respondent's suggestion of stipulating to an extension of the discovery and testimony periods and, hence, perhaps obviating the need for filing its motion.³

² Petitioner's testimony period was scheduled to begin on April

Accordingly, the motion to compel is denied.

To facilitate the exchange of discovery herein, the Board hereby imposes its standard protective order, which is available online at

<http://www.uspto.gov/web/offices/dcom/ttab/tbmp/stndagmnt.htm> on both parties. A copy of the Board's standard form order is enclosed with each party's copy of this order. The 22, 2006.

³ Opposer must adhere to the strictures set forth in Sentrol, Inc. v. Sentex Systems, Inc., 231 USPQ 666 (TTAB 1986), and repeated below:

[E]ach party and its attorney has a duty not only to make a good faith effort to satisfy the discovery needs of its opponent but also to make a good faith effort to seek only such discovery as is proper and relevant to the specific issues involved in the case. Moreover, where the parties disagree as to the propriety of certain requests for discovery, they are under an obligation to get together and attempt in good faith to resolve their differences and to present to the Board for resolution only those remaining requests for discovery, if any, upon which they have been unable, despite their best efforts, to reach an agreement. Inasmuch as the Board has neither the time nor the personnel to handle motions to compel involving substantial numbers of requests for discovery which require tedious examination, it is generally the policy of the Board to intervene in disputes concerning discovery, by determining motions to compel, only where it is clear that the parties have in fact followed the aforesaid process and have narrowed the amount of disputed requests for discovery, if any, down to a reasonable number.

Cancellation No. 92044697

parties are directed to file with the Board, within thirty days of the mailing date of this order, signed copies of the attached acknowledgment form so that the terms of the protective order shall survive this proceeding.

In order to afford the parties ample time in which to complete discovery, trial dates, commencing with discovery, are reset as follows:

DISCOVERY PERIOD TO CLOSE: 1/5/2007

Plaintiff's 30-day testimony period to close: 4/5/2007

Defendant's 30-day testimony period to close: 6/4/2007

Plaintiff's 15-day rebuttal testimony period to close: 7/19/2007

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE BEFORE THE TRADEMARK TRIAL AND APPEAL BOARD

ACM Enterprises, Inc.

v.

Cancellation
No. 92044697

Jeannette Martello

PROVISIONS FOR PROTECTING
CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION REVEALED DURING BOARD PROCEEDING

Information disclosed by any party or non-party witness during this proceeding may be considered confidential, a trade secret, or commercially sensitive by a party or witness. To preserve the confidentiality of the information so disclosed, either the parties have agreed to be bound by the terms of this order, in its standard form or as modified by agreement, and by any additional provisions to which they may have agreed and attached to this order, or the Board has ordered that the parties be bound by the provisions within. As used in this order, the term "information" covers both oral testimony and documentary material.

Parties may use this standard form order as the entirety of their agreement or may use it as a template from which they may fashion a modified agreement. If the Board orders that the parties abide by the terms of this order, they may subsequently agree to modifications or additions, subject to Board approval.

Agreement of the parties is indicated by the signatures of the parties' attorneys and/or the parties themselves at the conclusion of the order. Imposition of the terms by the Board is indicated by signature of a Board attorney or Administrative Trademark Judge at the conclusion of the order. If the parties have signed the order, they may have created a contract. The terms are binding from the date the parties or their attorneys sign the order, in standard form or as modified or supplemented, or from the date of imposition by a Board attorney or judge.

TERMS OF ORDER

1) Classes of Protected Information.

The Rules of Practice in Trademark Cases provide that all inter partes proceeding files, as well as the involved registration and application files, are open to public inspection. The terms of this order are not to be used to undermine public access to files. When appropriate, however, a party or witness, on its own or through its attorney, may seek to protect the confidentiality of information by employing one of the following designations.

Confidential—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access.

Highly Confidential—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access and subject to agreed restrictions on access even as to the parties and/or their attorneys.

Trade Secret/Commercially Sensitive—Material to be shielded by the Board from public access, restricted from any access by the parties, and available for review by outside counsel for the parties and, subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 and 5, by independent experts or consultants for the parties.

2) Information Not to Be Designated as Protected.

Information may not be designated as subject to any form of protection if it (a) is, or becomes, public knowledge, as shown by publicly available writings, other than through violation of the terms of this document; (b) is acquired by a non-designating party or non-party witness from a third party lawfully possessing such information and having no obligation to the owner of the information; (c) was lawfully possessed by a non-designating party or non-party witness prior to the opening of discovery in this proceeding, and for which there is written evidence of the lawful possession; (d) is disclosed by a non-designating party or non-party witness legally compelled to disclose the information; or (e) is disclosed by a non-designating party with the approval of the designating party.

3) Access to Protected Information.

The provisions of this order regarding access to protected information are subject to modification by written agreement of the parties or their attorneys, or by motion filed with and approved by the Board.

Judges, attorneys, and other employees of the Board are bound to honor the parties' designations of information as protected but are not required to sign forms acknowledging the terms and existence of this order. Court reporters, stenographers, video technicians or others who may be employed by the parties or their attorneys to perform services incidental to this proceeding will be bound only to the extent that the parties or their attorneys make it a condition of employment or obtain agreements from such individuals, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 4.

- Parties are defined as including individuals, officers of corporations, partners of partnerships, and management employees of any type of business organization.
- Attorneys for parties are defined as including in-house counsel and outside counsel, including support staff operating under counsel's direction, such as paralegals or legal assistants, secretaries, and any other employees or independent contractors operating under counsel's instruction.
- Independent experts or consultants include individuals retained by a party for purposes related to prosecution or defense of the proceeding but who are not otherwise employees of either the party or its attorneys.
- Non-party witnesses include any individuals to be deposed during discovery or trial, whether willingly or under subpoena issued by a court of competent jurisdiction over the witness.

Parties and their attorneys shall have access to information designated as confidential or highly confidential, subject to any agreed exceptions. Outside counsel, but not in-house counsel, shall have access to information designated as trade secret/commercially sensitive. Independent experts or consultants, non-party witnesses, and any other individual not otherwise specifically covered by the terms of this order may be afforded access to confidential or highly confidential information in accordance with the terms that follow in paragraph 4. Further, independent experts or consultants may have access to trade secret/commercially sensitive information if such access is agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Board, in accordance with the terms that follow in paragraph 4 and 5.

4) Disclosure to Any Individual.

Prior to disclosure of protected information by any party or its attorney to any individual not already provided access to such information by the terms of this order, the individual shall be informed of the existence of this order and provided with a copy to read. The individual will then be required to certify in writing that the order has been read and understood and that the terms shall be binding on the individual. No individual shall receive any protected information until the party or attorney proposing to disclose the information has received the signed certification from the individual. A form for such certification is attached to this order. The party or attorney receiving the completed form shall retain the original.

5) Disclosure to Independent Experts or Consultants.

In addition to meeting the requirements of paragraph 4, any party or attorney proposing to share disclosed information with an independent expert or consultant must also notify the party that designated the information as protected. Notification must be personally served or forwarded by certified mail, return receipt requested, and shall provide notice of the name, address, occupation and professional background of the expert or independent consultant.

The party or its attorney receiving the notice shall have ten (10) business days to object to disclosure to the expert or independent consultant. If objection is made, then the parties must negotiate the issue before raising the issue before the Board. If the parties are unable to settle their dispute, then it shall be the obligation of the party or attorney proposing disclosure to bring the matter before the Board with an explanation of the need for disclosure and a report on the efforts the parties have made to settle their dispute. The party objecting to disclosure will be expected to respond with its arguments against disclosure or its objections will be deemed waived.

6) Responses to Written Discovery.

Responses to interrogatories under Federal Rule 33 and requests for admissions under Federal Rule 36, and which the responding party reasonably believes to contain protected information shall be prominently stamped or marked with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Any inadvertent disclosure without appropriate designation shall be remedied as soon as the disclosing party learns of its error, by informing all adverse parties, in writing, of the error. The parties should inform the Board only if necessary because of the filing of protected information not in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 12.

7) Production of Documents.

If a party responds to requests for production under Federal Rule 34 by making copies and forwarding the copies to the inquiring party, then the copies shall be prominently stamped or marked, as necessary, with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. If the responding party makes documents available for inspection and copying by the inquiring party, all documents shall be considered protected during the course of inspection. After the inquiring party informs the responding party what documents are to be copied, the responding party will be responsible for prominently stamping or marking the copies with the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Any inadvertent disclosure without appropriate designation shall be remedied as soon as the disclosing party learns of its error, by informing all adverse parties, in writing, of the error. The parties should inform the Board only if necessary because of the filing of protected information not in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 12.

8) Depositions.

Protected documents produced during a discovery deposition, or offered into evidence during a testimony deposition shall be orally noted as such by the producing or offering party at the outset of any discussion of the document or information contained in the document. In addition, the documents must be prominently stamped or marked with the appropriate designation.

During discussion of any non-documentary protected information, the interested party shall make oral note of the protected nature of the information.

The transcript of any deposition and all exhibits or attachments shall be considered protected for 30 days following the date of service of the transcript by the party that took the deposition. During that 30-day period, either party may designate the portions of the transcript, and any specific exhibits or attachments, that are to be treated as protected, by electing the appropriate designation from paragraph 1. Appropriate stampings or markings should be made during this time. If no such designations are made, then the entire transcript and exhibits will be considered unprotected.

9) Filing Notices of Reliance.

When a party or its attorney files a notice of reliance during the party's testimony period, the party or attorney is bound to honor designations made by the adverse party or attorney, or non-party witness, who disclosed the information, so as to maintain the protected status of the information.

10) Briefs.

When filing briefs, memoranda, or declarations in support of a motion, or briefs at final hearing, the portions of these filings that discuss protected information, whether information of the filing party, or any adverse party, or any non-party witness, should be redacted. The rule of reasonableness for redaction is discussed in paragraph 12 of this order.

11) Handling of Protected Information.

Disclosure of information protected under the terms of this order is intended only to facilitate the prosecution or defense of this case. The recipient of any protected information disclosed in accordance with the terms of this order is obligated to maintain the confidentiality of the information and shall exercise reasonable care in handling, storing, using or disseminating the information.

12) Redaction; Filing Material With the Board.

When a party or attorney must file protected information with the Board, or a brief that discusses such information, the protected information or portion of the brief discussing the same should be redacted from the remainder. A rule of reasonableness should dictate how redaction is effected.

Redaction can entail merely covering a portion of a page of material when it is copied in anticipation of filing but can also entail the more extreme measure of simply filing the entire page under seal as one that contains primarily confidential material. If only a sentence or short paragraph of a page of material is confidential, covering that material when the page is copied would be appropriate. In contrast, if most of the material on the page is confidential, then filing the entire page under seal would be more reasonable, even if some small quantity of non-confidential material is then withheld from the public record. Likewise, when a multi-page document is in issue, reasonableness would dictate that redaction of the portions or pages containing confidential material be effected when only some small number of pages contain such material. In contrast, if almost every page of the document contains some confidential material, it may be more reasonable to simply submit the entire document under seal.

Occasions when a whole document or brief must be submitted under seal should be very rare.

Protected information, and pleadings, briefs or memoranda that reproduce, discuss or paraphrase such information, shall be filed with the Board under seal. The envelopes or containers shall be prominently stamped or marked with a legend in substantially the following form:

CONFIDENTIAL

This envelope contains documents or information that are subject to a protective order or agreement. The confidentiality of the material is to be maintained and the envelope is not to be opened, or the contents revealed to any individual, except by order of the Board.

13) Acceptance of Information; Inadvertent Disclosure.

Acceptance by a party or its attorney of information disclosed under designation as protected shall not constitute an admission that the information is, in fact, entitled to protection. Inadvertent disclosure of information which the disclosing party intended to designate as protected shall not constitute waiver of any right to claim the information as protected upon discovery of the error.

14) Challenges to Designations of Information as Protected.

If the parties or their attorneys disagree as to whether certain information should be protected, they are obligated to negotiate in good faith regarding the designation by the disclosing party. If the parties are unable to resolve their differences, the party challenging the designation may make a motion before the Board seeking a determination of the status of the information.

A challenge to the designation of information as protected must be made substantially contemporaneous with the designation, or as soon as practicable after the basis for challenge is known. When a challenge is made long after a designation of information as protected, the challenging party will be expected to show why it could not have made the challenge at an earlier time.

The party designating information as protected will, when its designation is timely challenged, bear the ultimate burden of proving that the information should be protected.

15) Board's Jurisdiction; Handling of Materials After Termination.

The Board's jurisdiction over the parties and their attorneys ends when this proceeding is terminated. A proceeding is terminated only after a final order is entered and either all appellate proceedings have been resolved or the time for filing an appeal has passed without filing of any appeal. The parties may agree that archival copies of evidence and briefs may be retained, subject to compliance with agreed safeguards. Otherwise, within 30 days after the final termination of this proceeding, the parties and their attorneys shall return to each disclosing party the protected information disclosed during the proceeding, and shall include any briefs, memoranda, summaries, and the like, which discuss or in any way refer to such information. In the alternative, the disclosing party or its attorney may make a written request that such materials be destroyed rather than returned.

16) Other Rights of the Parties and Attorneys.

This order shall not preclude the parties or their attorneys from making any applicable claims of privilege during discovery or at trial. Nor shall the order preclude the filing of any motion with the Board for relief from a particular provision of this order or for additional protections not provided by this order.

Cancellation No. 92044697

By Order of the Board, effective December 27, 2006.

/al/

Ann Linnehan, interlocutory attorney

Cancellation No. 92044697