v.

Ginkgo International, Ltd.

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

Answer was due in this case on December 24, 2005.

Inasmuch as it appears that no answer has been filed, nor has applicant filed a motion to extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against applicant under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Applicant is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against applicant in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).¹

¹The Board notes that applicant filed a change of correspondence address via the USPTO's TEAS system on December 29, 2005. The Board has updated its records to reflect this change of correspondence address. The responsibility for any failure to receive correspondence due to a change of address of which the Board has not been given separate notice lies with the party or its attorney or other authorized representative. Accordingly, any future change of correspondence address should be filed with the Board, as long as applicant's application is subject to a Board proceeding. See TBMP Section 117.07.
