Glenn Danzig

v.

Cyclopiian Music, Inc.

Nicole Thier, Paralegal Specialist:

Petitioner's consented motion (filed April 3, 2013) to further suspend proceedings to accommodate the parties' ongoing settlement efforts is granted for good cause shown.

However, the parties are reminded of their continued obligation to provide a detailed progress report with all future requests to extend or suspend filed with the Board. Failing which, any future motion, even though agreed upon by the parties, may not be granted by the Board.

Proceedings herein are suspended until July 15, 2013, subject to the right of either party to request resumption at any time. See Trademark Rule 2.117(c).

In the event that there is no word from either party concerning the progress of their negotiations, upon conclusion of the suspension period, proceedings shall resume without further notice or order from the Board, upon the schedule set out in opposer's motion.

In each instance, a copy of the transcript of testimony together with copies of documentary exhibits, must be served on the adverse party within thirty days after completion of the taking of testimony. Trademark Rule 2.125.

Briefs shall be filed in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.128(a) and (b). An oral hearing will be set only upon request filed as provided by Trademark Rule 2.129.

If, during the suspension period, either of the parties or their attorneys should have a change of address, the Board should be so informed.
