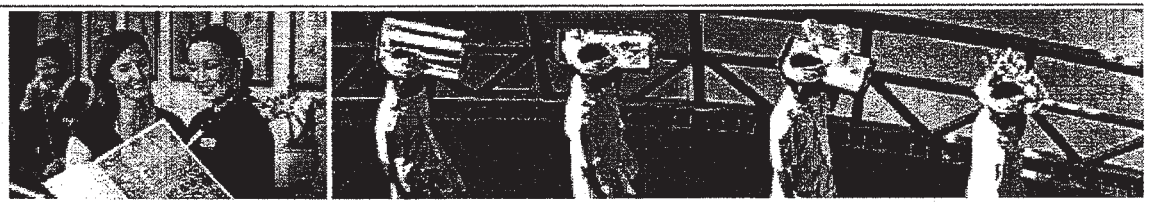
FAQ



What We Offer: Perks

Working at Starwood is more than just a great job. There are also some perks that you just can not get working for anyone else. In addition to competitive pay and benefits, Starwood associates can take advantage of great discounts and deals.

Hotel Savings
Starwood associates enjoy amazing discounts for hotel stays in a program called "StarHOT". When availability permits, associates and their eligible family members can stay at our fabulous hotels and resorts for as little as US$29 per night. During their stay, associates are often entitled to half-price meals. With such great deals, the only question you have to ask yourself is, "Where do I want to go today?".

Discounted Meals
During their work shifts, Starwood associates enjoy free or discounted meals in the associate cafeteria. Prepared by many of the same chefs who prepare room service and restaurant meals, our associates are never left feeling hungry or dissatisfied.

Product Deals
Once you have seen the luxurious bed, bath, and spa products in our hotels and resorts, you will probably want them for yourself. Not to worry... Starwood associates get fantastic discounts on Starwood products, including Westin's legendary Heavenly Bed. So you, too, can enjoy a piece of Starwood luxury and comfort in your own home.

Partner Discounts
Starwood has partnered with numerous local and national partners to offer discounts on the things you want and need. Starwood associates are entitled to substantial discounts on computers, new cars, entertainment, car rentals, magazines, electronics, and mobile phone service.

As you can tell, Starwood tries to take care of its associates in every way possible. If this sounds like a company you would like to be part of, we invite you to search for current job openings.

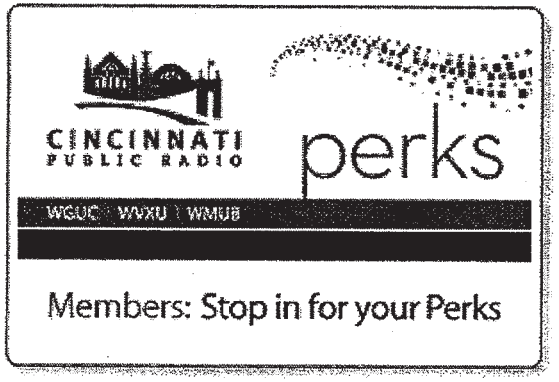
CINCINNATI
PUBLIC RADIO

How it Works



Thank you for being a member of Cincinnati Public Radio and welcome to Cincinnati Public Radio Perks!

Your financial support of Cincinnati Public Radio helps us to provide the public radio service you have come to expect in our community. Cincinnati Public Radio Perks is one way of saying "Thank you" for your support. We hope you enjoy the many discounts and special offers from the participating restaurants, retailers, arts organizations and other businesses and organizations. Like you, the businesses and organizations that participate in Cincinnati Public Radio Perks are showing their support for Cincinnati Public Radio by extending these opportunities to you.

Getting Started

To get started, you can use our map search tool. This allows you to easily search for participants and see where they are located. Or view a complete list of participants. Either way, you'll find a description of the discount being offered to members. You can also look for our Cincinnati Public Radio Perks window sticker displayed by participating business and organizations.

Receiving your discount is simple: when you visit the business or organization, show your Cincinnati Public Radio Perks card. See the usage guidelines below for more details.

REG000449

Additional Benefits

We'll continue to add participants so check our site often for new discounts. The best part: the discounts are available on an ongoing basis – these aren't one time only offers! Plus, each month you'll find special Benefit of the Month offers. You can also watch for discount offers in Cincinnati Public Radio's email newsletter. Sign up to receive the newsletter here.

To maintain your benefits, be sure to keep your membership current by renewing your membership prior to the expiration date on your card. A new card will be sent with your acknowledgement letter within 2–3 weeks after you renew.

Usage Guidelines

Please review the discount details listed on this website carefully. Discounts may apply to selected events and activities only, are subject to availability, and apply to in-person sales only, unless otherwise noted.

At restaurants, please present Cincinnati Public Radio Perks card when you order or before requesting the check. Discount excludes gratuity; please base your gratuity on the pre-discount cost of the meal.

At retailers, please present Cincinnati Public Radio Perks card before purchases are rung up. Retail discounts apply to in-store merchandise only. For lodging and transportation, mention the discount when making your reservation and present your card at the time of check in.

Mention Cincinnati Public Radio Perks and any specified code when scheduling any appointments, classes, services, or reserving tickets with performance venues. Pre-registration or reservations for classes may be required. Present your card when you arrive in person.

Sales tax is computed on the sales price subject to tax, after the discount is applied.

Discount is valid only at listed locations, unless otherwise noted.

If you have more questions...

If a Cincinnati Public Radio Perks participant does not honor your card, or if you have questions not answered here, please email us or call 877–262–0869 between the hours of 8:00 am and 4:00 pm, Pacific Time, business days.

Terms and Conditions

Subject to your acceptance of all the terms and conditions of the Cincinnati Public Radio Perks program, as listed here and in the web directory you are eligible to receive certain benefits as a participant in the Cincinnati Public Radio Perks program. By your use of the Cincinnati Public Radio Perks card, you indicate your acceptance to all of these terms and conditions, including without limitation the following. If you do not agree to any of these terms and conditions, please do not use the Cincinnati Public Radio Perks card.

Perks card program at Fort Bragg offers customer discounts

Apr 9, 2010

By Tina Ray/Paraglide

A customer uses her Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation discount card at the Tickets and Tours office in the Fort Bragg Mini Mall Thursday. The discount card entitles users to discounts at FMWR events and facilities.

FORT BRAGG, N.C. - Coupon clippers have long extolled the advantages of saving money at the cash register. Well, with one swipe of the Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation Perks card, discounts abound for Soldiers, Families and authorized users.

The FMWR discount card program kicked off Thursday, said Pam Thomas, chief of Support Division/fund administrator, FMWR. The cost of the discount card depends on rank or longevity of Department of Defense employment.

It ranges from $25 for three months for Soldiers ranked specialist and below to $180 for 12 months for sergeant major or command sergeant major, chief warrant officer 5, O6 and above, distinguished civilian and DoD civilian GS11 equivalent or higher.

"You can save more money in a year's cost than the card would cost," Thomas said. "It saves you money."

The card was the brainchild of Lori Bruschi, FMWR marketing director, said Thomas. It is designed for customers to get VIP perks and privileges.

"Loyal customers who buy into the program are rewarded and can receive discounts at FMWR facilities around Fort Bragg every day," Bruschi said.

Some of those discounts include: Buy one get one free game, Monday to Friday until 4 p.m. at bowling centers, excluding private parties. $5 off regular green fee with cart rental at Ryder or Stryker golf courses. Buy one trail ride, get one free, Monday to Friday, excluding parties.
Ten percent off individual smoothies and shakes at Ritz-Epps Physical Fitness Center. Ten percent off Sunday brunch at Fort Bragg Club. Discounted cover charges at SportsUSA events.

Also, FMWR Perks cardholders will get their own line and check-in stations at special FMWR ticket and product giveaways, Thomas added. Other discounts will be forthcoming and updated on the FMWR Web site at www.fortbraggmwr.com.

Army spouse, Jordan McLerran-Hill said her Family might consider purchasing the card. They live off base, in Raeford, and have begun to attend FMWR events more regularly. "It seems like it's a really good idea. That means extra money for us to save up," McLerran-Hill said.

Eligible customers can apply for the Perks card at the Fort Bragg Club on Armistead Street, Tickets and Tour in the Mini Mall, Dragon Lanes, next to the Mini Mall and Airborne Lanes on Ardennes Street, or visit the FMWR Web site. Information is also available on FMWR's Facebook page.

The Perks card program is new, but depending on its success, could be expanded. "We're starting out slow and if it catches on, we'll go big," said Thomas. "Our only purpose in life is the Soldier, the Family and the authorized user. That's why we're here."

Heartland Payment Systems' Give Something Back (GSB) Network is a growing, nationwide network of sponsoring organizations, merchants and donation recipients that makes it easy to support your community while you do something routine — make purchases with your GT Plus Perks Card.

If you're on the go or out of town, remember you can use your GT Plus Perks Card to make purchases wherever the GT Plus Perks Card or Give Something Back Network logo is displayed.

To find Give Something Back Network merchants in your community or others, click here.

For every purchase you make at a participating merchant with your GT Plus Perks Card, the Give Something Back Network "returns" 1.5% of the purchase price to you. One-third of that 1.5% will be automatically donated to the UNC Foundation — an organization selected by Granville Towers. You can choose to donate the remaining 1% to the UNC Foundation or other eligible nonprofits when you set up your GT Plus Perks Card account online. Alternatively, you can elect to receive 1% cash back — that's money back in your wallet.

I think it's automatically linked to your home address, so any order you ship to your house automatically gets credited to your account by the way - did they start the new place perks promotion for this year? (last years one ended in january.)

How did you get the place perks card, or are you continuing to use your card from last time for this years promotion (I think that is what a salesman in C.P. told me you can do)

I think it is random who they send the cards to.

It is linked to your e-mail address I think (or maybe home address)

Its linked to your place card acount. they sent out new cards and if you had it last year you don't need to reregister the cards. perks automatically started again on Feb 2. (yeh yeh, I spend too much in Childrens Place)
