v.

Michael Akkawi

Linda Skoro, Interlocutory Attorney

Answer to petitioner's first amended petition was due (as last reset) in this case on September 21, 2010. Inasmuch as it appears that no answer to the amended petition has been filed, nor has respondent filed a motion to further extend its time to answer, notice of default is hereby entered against respondent under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).

Respondent is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against respondent in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b).

Further, petitioner filed a motion to compel discovery on September 28, 2010. Proceedings herein are suspended pending disposition of the motion to compel, except as discussed below.

The parties should not file any paper which is not germane to the motion to compel. See Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(2).

This suspension order does not toll the time for either party to make any required disclosure, to respond to discovery requests which had been duly served prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel, or to appear for a discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel. See Id. The motion to compel will be decided in due course.
