Tina Craven, Paralegal Specialist:

The Board notes that on March 21, 2011, respondent filed with the Board a copy of its initial disclosures that were apparently served on counsel for petitioner. However, initial disclosures, like requests for discovery, responses thereto, and materials or depositions obtained through the discovery process, should not be filed with the Board except when submitted (1) with a motion relating to discovery; or (2) in support of or response to a motion for summary judgment; or (3) under a notice of reliance during a party's testimony period; or (4) as exhibits to a testimony deposition; or (5) in support of an objection to proffered evidence on the ground that the evidence should have been, but was not, provided in response to a request for discovery. See Trademark Rule 2.120(j)(8).

In view thereof, respondent is advised that the
