v.

Even St. Productions, Ltd.

Eric McWilliams, Supervisory Paralegal

On October 21, 2015, the Board issued a show cause order inasmuch as Respondent has permitted the involved registration to be cancelled under Section 8 of the Trademark Act. A review of the file reveals that this proceeding was previously suspended pending the outcome of the bankruptcy proceeding involving Respondent. Accordingly, the Board's October 21, 2015 order is vacated to the extent that proceedings will remain suspended pending final determination of the bankruptcy case.¹ See Section 362 of the United States Bankruptcy Code, 11 U.S.C. § 362.

Within twenty days after such final determination, the parties shall so notify the Board at which time, Respondent will be allowed time in which to respond to the order to show cause with respect to the cancellation of the involved registration and also the withdrawal of counsel. The notification to the Board of the final disposition of the bankruptcy proceeding should include a copy of any order or judgment which issued in the case.

During the suspension period, the parties shall notify the Board of any address changes for the parties or their attorneys.
