Silk Water Solutions Inc.

v.

Dassa Holdings Ltd.

Cheryl S. Goodman, Interlocutory Attorney:

On June 1, 2011 petitioner filed with the Board a copy¹ of its pretrial disclosures which were apparently served on counsel for registrant. However, pretrial disclosures need not be filed with the Board, unless a motion to strike evidence or testimony of a witness, or a motion to quash has been filed relating to the pretrial disclosures. TBMP Section 409 (3d ed. 2011).

Accordingly, petitioner's pretrial disclosures, filed June 1, 2011, will be given no further consideration.

Petitioner's motion, filed July 12, 2011, to extend appears not to be on consent. Therefore, consideration of the motion is deferred to afford time for the filing of a response thereto.

¹ The Board notes that this filing was filed in the child proceeding and not in the Parent case which is 92052048. The parties are hereby reminded that any papers should only be filed in the Parent case which is the lower numbered case.
