v.

Juan E. Rodriguez

M. Catherine Faint, Interlocutory Attorney:

Petitioner granted consent to respondent's motion for extension of time to respond to the motion to compel. Accordingly, respondent's motion to extend time is granted. Respondent's response to the motion to compel is due May 7, 2012.

The parties are reminded of their ongoing duty to cooperate in discovery.

Proceedings herein remain suspended pending disposition of petitioner's April 5, 2012 motion to compel, except as discussed below. The parties should not file any paper which is not germane to the motion to compel. See Trademark Rule 2.120(e)(2).

This suspension order does not toll the time for either party to make any required disclosure, to respond to discovery requests which had been duly served prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel, or to appear for a discovery deposition which had been duly noticed prior to the filing and service of the motion to compel. See Id. The motion to compel will be decided in due course.
