Re: The Estate of Donald Yenko
Unauthorized Use of the Yenko Name

Mr. Virgil,

Please be informed that my office has been retained by the heirs of Donald Yenko to immediately stop the use of the name "Yenko" on automobile products and automobiles without the expressed written permission of the heirs of Donald Yenko.

It has come to the attention of the heirs of Donald Yenko that your company will be putting on a show in Las Vegas, Nevada starting on November 3, 2009 with an exhibitor from a company named General Marketing Capital, Inc. from Westminster, California and General Marketing Capital, Inc. intends to show a 2010 Yenko Camaro.

General Marketing Capital, Inc. does not have the permission or authorization to utilize the Yenko name from the heirs of Donald Yenko and the heirs of Donald Yenko have not granted permission to General Marketing Capital, Inc. to utilize the Yenko name or Yenko Symbols to identify the 2010 Camaro.

In a separate letter, I will be informing General Marketing Capital, Inc. to cease and desist using the Yenko name to identify their 2010 Yenko Camaro or any and all items manufactured or sold by them in the future.

I would expect your company to comply with both federal and state laws and inform General Marketing Capital, Inc. that they are not allow to show the 2010 Yenko Camaro at your show in Las Vegas, Nevada unless they enter into a licensing agreement to utilize the Yenko name from my client's prior to your show.

Your failure to honor the heirs of Donald Yenko's request contained in this letter will subject your company to possible litigation and possible large monetary fines in both state and/or federal court.

Your prompt attention to this matter is greatly appreciated and if you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Re: Unauthorized Use of the Yenko Name

Dear Mr. Venit:

I represent SEMA Show management regarding intellectual property issues at its annual show. I am writing in response to your letter dated October 30, 2009 regarding the use of the Yenko name on products being displayed by an exhibitor at the SEMA Show. At your request, this response is being sent to your Chicago office.

SEMA's policy regarding intellectual property ("IP") issues at the show can be summed up as follows:

- SEMA will log each complaint.
- SEMA will review the complaint and may perform basic research to evaluate whether the claim has any likelihood of validity.
- If the complaint appears to have any validity, the complaint will be brought to the attention of the exhibitor that is the subject of the complaint.
- SEMA policies regarding IP infringement will be provided to the exhibitor.

- The exhibitor has the opportunity to remove or cover the product at issue. By removing the product from view, the exhibitor will generally avoid future sanctions regarding exhibiting at the show related to the IP complaint.
- The exhibitor may elect to continue to display the material at issue; however, if the exhibitor is adjudged by a court to have engaged in infringement at the show, then SEMA may take action regarding the exhibitor's status at the show or the exhibitor's ability to participate in future shows.
- SEMA will not provide any IP advice to any complaining party or exhibitor.
- SEMA will not make a determination as to whether any particular product or service constitutes an infringement; that is the domain of the courts.

In compliance with SEMA policies, I have (i) reviewed your letter, (ii) checked the United States Patent and Trademark Office records related to the YENKO mark and (iii) visited the booth that is planning to exhibit the 2010 Chevrolet Camaro bearing the YENKO mark (the "Yenko Camaro"), and provided them with notice of the complaint and an explanation of the relevant SEMA policies.

General Marketing Capital, Inc. ("GMCI") is not exhibiting at the show; however, another exhibitor is displaying GMCI products and they are relying on the federally registered trademarks for YENKO owned by GMCI as a basis for their belief that GMCI has the right to market the YENKO Camaro.

My research of the publicly available information published by the United States Patent and Trademark Office indicates GMCI owns the following mark registrations incorporating the term YENKO:

Mark	Registration Number	Goods/Services
YENKO	3097652	Automobiles and Automotive parts and accessories, namely, wheel caps, spoilers and emblems
YENKO	2314585	Mail order catalogue services featuring parts and accessories for the restoration of classic automobiles; wholesale distributorships featuring parts and accessories for the restoration of classic automobiles
	3585627	Metal parts for motor vehicles, namely, decorative metal automotive emblems, Decals, Glass mugs, Clothing, namely, t-shirts and caps
YENKO	3161668	Clothing and headwear accessories, namely shirts, jackets and caps

It is my understanding that the exhibitor will not be removing the Yenke Camaro from their exhibit.

If your client pursues action against GMCI or their distributors, please let me know and I will add this information to my files. Also, if your client obtains a judgment or order from a Nevada court, or an order or judgment domesticated in Nevada, prohibiting the showing of the Yenke Camaro at the show, please let me know.

If you have any questions regarding this letter, please call me on my cell at 702-518-3554.

Sincerely,

Greg Gemignani

Re: Notice of Intention to File Suit for Trademark and Trade Name Infringement of Yenko Name.

Mr. Leonard,

Please be advised that our firm has been retained by Terri Yenko Gould, the daughter of Donald Yenko and the executor of his estate to act immediately to stop the unauthorized use of Donald Yenko's name and his various Yenko trademarks.

Presently, only one entity has a valid written license to use the Yenko name which was granted in 1999 by the Yenko Estate. This license was granted by the Yenko family to maintain the history of Donald Yenko and his work. A license to have an annual national Yenko reunion event was also granted. A website was established with a historical database of Donald Yenko's life and work as well as a licensed national club. To date the club, the Yenko Sports Car Club has almost 10,000 members and the national event has convened every year for over almost ten (10) years and generates national media attention each year.

No other person or entity has been given authorization to use the Yenko name or Yenko trademarks and all are infringing on the common law rights to the Yenko name and various trademarks. Specifically General Marketing Capital, Inc. and you are in blatant violation of the Yenko family's rights by creating an unauthorized version of their father's Yenko Camaro. Furthermore, you or your company appear to have obtained a trade name and trademark license to the Yenko name and Yenko Trademark without the consent or authorization of Yenko Estate which is an infringement on the rights of Donald Yenko's Estate.

EXHIBIT
RESP. 3

The firm has been retained to act immediately to stop the continued violations and misappropriation of the Yenko name and trade marks. Therefore, this letter shall serve as notice that you are to immediately cease and desist from further use of the Yenko name or Yenko Trademark in any and all forms including the sale of cars, equipment, memorabilia or parts. Please direct any and all questions or inquiries to myself or Lester Quam. We will be moving forward to properly register the Yenko name and Yenko Trademark and assisting the Yenko Estate in establishing licensing agreements and recovering monies lost by the recent violations.

Cordially,

CAMARO EMBLEM BARREL CLIPS
These special clips are used to make fender emblems easier to install. Eliminates the need to get behind the fender in order to install the emblem. Simply push the emblem on from the front and the clips will hold the emblem firmly in place. Due to variation in stud size, we now offer a complete line of all sizes necessary for 67 thru 75 Camaros. All sizes listed below.
K-13063		3/32 stud size	.15 ea
K-11162		1/8 stud size (tubular)	.20 ea
