v.

Edgar Alexander Barrera

Cheryl S. Goodman, Interlocutory Attorney:

Respondent's motions to extend time to secure new legal counsel, filed October 11, 2011 and November 10, 2011 are granted as conceded.

Respondent is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to appoint new counsel, or to file a paper stating that respondent chooses to represent itself. If respondent files no response, the Board may issue an order to show cause why default judgment should not be entered against respondent based on respondent's apparent loss of interest in the case.

Further extensions of time after the additional thirty days provided herein to secure new counsel will require that applicant provide detailed information regarding its efforts to secure counsel during the 30 day extension period. Such information must include specific factual information regarding its efforts to secure counsel during the entire 30 day period.<sup>1</sup> Additionally, respondent must establish his diligence in seeking counsel by explaining why he has been unable to secure counsel within the 30 days that will have been provided by granting this further extension herein. Absent this information, further motions to extend to secure counsel may be denied.<sup>2</sup>

The parties will be notified by the Board when proceedings are resumed, and dates will be rescheduled at the appropriate time.

Proceedings remain suspended.
