v.

Ovation, Inc.

Lalita R. Greer, Paralegal Specialist:

It is noted by the Board that petitioner's time for filing a brief on the case has expired, and no brief has been filed. Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of petitioner fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing petitioner until a set time, not less than fifteen days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if petitioner fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case; judgment may be entered against petitioner

In view of the above, petitioner is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the notice of opposition with prejudice will be entered against petitioner.
