v.

Edataforce Consulting, LLC

Rochelle Adams, Paralegal Specialist:

It is noted by the Board that petitioner's time for filing a brief on the case has expired, and no brief has been filed. Trademark Rule 2.128(a)(3) provides that when a party in the position of plaintiff fails to file a main brief, an order may be issued allowing plaintiff until a set time, not less than 15 days, in which to show cause why the Board should not treat such failure as a concession of the case. The rule further provides that if plaintiff fails to file a response to the order, or files a response indicating that it has lost interest in the case, judgment may be entered against plaintiff.

¹The Board notes petitioner's June 14, 2013 revocation and new power of attorney that was filed and the records have been updated accordingly.

Cancellation No. 92054039

In view of the above, petitioner is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why the Board should not treat its failure to file a brief as a concession of the case, failing which a judgment dismissing the petition for cancellation with prejudice will be entered against petitioner.
