Michael B. Adlin, Interlocutory Attorney:

On February 3, 2012 respondent's counsel filed and apparently served a letter to the Board, and on February 8, 2012 an attorney purporting to represent petitioner in another matter, who is not petitioner's counsel in this case, also filed and apparently served a letter. The letter from petitioner's counsel in another matter will be given no consideration.

Generally, motions should be made in formal written filings, or orally during a teleconference between the Board and the parties, and must be made by a party's counsel of record, if the party is represented. If petitioner seeks suspension of this proceeding, its counsel of record should make a formal written or oral motion. If respondent consents to the motion, petitioner should so indicate, and in considering whether to consent to or oppose any such motion, respondent should review, at the very least, TBMP § 510 (3d ed. 2011).

For the time being, dates remain as set in the Board's order of November 15, 2011.
