Mango's Tropical Cafe, Inc.

v.

Tango Mango, LLC

George C. Pologeorgis, Interlocutory Attorney:

On October 22, 2013, petitioner filed a motion for summary judgment on its asserted grounds for cancellation, namely, abandonment and likelihood of confusion. On October 23, 2013, the Board suspended this proceeding pending the disposition of petitioner's motion for summary judgment.

On November 26, 2013,¹ respondent filed a combined response to petitioner's motion for summary judgment and a cross-motion for summary judgment regarding both of petitioner's asserted grounds for cancellation.

In view of the foregoing, petitioner is allowed until December 26, 2013 in which to file and serve a combined response to respondent's cross-motion for summary judgment and reply brief in support of its own motion for summary judgment, not to exceed a page limitation of 25 pages.

Respondent may file a reply brief in support of its cross-motion for summary judgment in accordance with Trademark Rule 2.127(e) and which does not exceed the 10 page limitation for reply briefs.

The parties are reminded that since they have agreed to service of papers by email, they may no longer avail themselves of the five additional days for service provided under Trademark Rule 2.119(c). See McDonald's Corporation v. Cambridge Overseas Development, Inc., 106 USPQ2d 1339 (TTAB 2013).

Proceedings otherwise remain suspending pending the disposition of the parties' respective motions for summary judgment.
