v.

Quentin Davis

ELIZABETH J. WINTER, INTERLOCUTORY ATTORNEY:

The purpose of this order is to clarify the Board's suspension order mailed on May 3, 2014. In particular, the Board stated that said order does not toll the time for either party to "serve ... pretrial disclosures." In view of petitioner's contested motion (filed March 10, 2014) to unilaterally extend its discovery period, trial dates, including disclosure due dates, may be reset. Thus, contrary to the Board's May 3, 2014, it is not necessary at this time for petitioner to serve its pretrial disclosures.¹

The Board's suspension order mailed May 2, 2014, otherwise stands as written.

Petitioner's motion to extend its discovery period and motion for sanctions will be decided in due course.

¹ Expert disclosures, if any, were to be served on February 6, 2014, prior to the filing of petitioner's motion to extend.
