PETITION FOR PARTIAL CANCELLATION

Petitioner, Armen Ekmekdje, an individual, with an address located at 35 Route De Sainte Suzanne, les Baux De Breteuil 27160, FRANCE, believes it will be harmed by and hereby petitions under 15 U.S.C. §1608 [Trademark Act §18] for partial cancellation of the goods of US Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630 for the mark LEDMASTER owned by Registrant, Ledstar

Inc., a Canadian Corporation, located at 131 Westcreek Drive Woodbridge, Ontario L4L 9N6 CANADA.

1. Petitioner is the owner of US Trademark Application No. 85/534,359, filed February 9, 2012, for the mark ledmaster with the class 011 goods of: Electric lamps; Electric light bulbs; Floodlights; Lamps; Lamps for outdoor use; Overhead lamps; and Spotlights.
2. Registrant is the owner of US Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630 for the mark LEDMASTER with the class 009 goods of: Software for controlling and managing LED based displays, signs, indicators, and illumination devices.
3. Exhibit A is a true and correct copy of a printout of information from the TSDR (Trademark Status and Document Retrieval) electronic database records of the USPTO showing the current status and title of US trademark application number 85/534,359.
4. US Trademark Application No. 85/534,359 has been finally refused registration by the USPTO on the grounds of a supposed likelihood of confusion with US Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630.
5. Exhibit B is a true and correct copy of the final refusal of registration mailed November 1, 2012, for US trademark application number 85/534,359.

6. Exhibit C is a true and correct copy of a printout of information from the TSDR (Trademark Status and Document Retrieval) electronic database records of the USPTO showing the current status and title of US trademark registration number 3,223,630.
7. On information and belief, Registrant filed renewal papers for US Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630 on March 18, 2013 for the goods of: Software for controlling and managing LED based displays, signs, indicators, and illumination devices.
8. Exhibit D is a true and correct copy of the Specimen of Use that was filed on March 18, 2013 with the USPTO for US Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630.
9. On information and belief, Registrant uses the LEDMASTER mark in conjunction with software solely used for controlling LED based road signs.
10. On information and belief, Registrant has never used the LEDMASTER mark in connection with goods other than software for controlling and managing LED based road signs.
11. On information and belief, at the time of its filing of renewal papers on March 18, 2013, Registrant used the LEDMASTER mark solely in connection with the goods of Software for controlling and managing LED based road signs.

12. Petitioner is harmed by Registrant's overly broad registration for the LEDMASTER mark because it has prompted the present refusal in US Application No. 85/534,359.
13. On information and belief, partial cancellation of US Registration 3,223,630, by restricting the goods of US Registration No. 3,223,630 to "Software for controlling and managing LED based road signs", will prompt the Examining Attorney in US Application No. 85/534,359 to withdraw the refusal, said refusal based on the grounds of a supposed likelihood of confusion between Registrant's and Petitioner's marks.
14. The goods of Petitioner's US Trademark Application No. 85/534,359 are not in class 009, they not include software, and are limited to various lamps and light bulbs for providing illumination.
15. Petitioner's goods as used in connection with the ledmaster mark are not intended to be controlled by software designed specifically for controlling LED based road signs.
16. Exhibit E is a true and correct copy of printouts of portions of what, on information and belief, is Registrant's website showing several "Project Examples" as well as "Customers" of Registrant.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner prays that this Petition for partial Cancellation of Registrant's U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630 be granted, resulting in an amendment to U.S. Trademark Registration No. 3,223,630, limiting the goods to "software for controlling LED based road signs” to avoid a finding of a likelihood of confusion with the mark of US Trademark Application No. 85/534,359.

STRICT DEADLINE TO RESPOND TO THIS LETTER

TO AVOID ABANDONMENT OF APPLICANT'S TRADEMARK APPLICATION, THE USPTO MUST RECEIVE APPLICANT'S COMPLETE RESPONSE TO THIS LETTER WITHIN 6 MONTHS OF THE ISSUE/MAILING DATE BELOW.

ISSUE/MAILING DATE: 11/1/2012

THIS IS A FINAL ACTION.

This Office action is in response to applicant's response filed on 10/07/2012.

The following requirement has been satisfied: Applicant has submitted an English translation of its foreign registration. TMEP §§713.02, 714.04.

This application was refused registration on the ground that the applied-for mark is likely to be confused with the mark in U.S. Registration No. 3223630. Applicant's arguments to the contrary have been considered and found unpersuasive. Consequently, for the reasons set forth below, the refusal under Trademark Act Section 2(d) is now made FINAL with respect to the cited registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); 37 C.F.R. §2.64(a). All evidence submitted with any Office action issued in connection with this application is incorporated by reference herein.

SECTION 2(d) REFUSAL – LIKELIHOOD OF CONFUSION

Registration of the applied-for mark is refused because of a likelihood of confusion with the mark in U.S. Registration No. 3223630. Trademark Act Section 2(d), 15 U.S.C. §1052(d); see TMEP §§1207.01 et seq.

In this case, the following factors are the most relevant: similarity of the marks, similarity of the goods, and similarity of trade channels of the goods. See In re Opus One, Inc., 60 USPQ2d 1812 (TTAB 2001); In re Dakin's Miniatures Inc., 59 USPQ2d 1593 (TTAB 1999); In re Azteca Rest. Enters., Inc., 50 USPQ2d 1209 (TTAB 1999); TMEP §§1207.01 et seq. Based on these factors, the examining attorney maintains that there is a likelihood of confusion between applicant's applied-for mark LEDMASTER for "Electric lamps; Electric light bulbs; Floodlights; Lamps; Lamps for outdoor use; Overhead lamps; Spotlights" in International Class 11, and registrant's mark:

LEDMASTER for "Software for controlling and managing LED based displays, signs, indicators, and illumination devices" in International Class 9.

COMPARISON OF THE MARKS

In a likelihood of confusion determination, the marks in their entireties are compared for similarities in appearance, sound, connotation, and commercial impression. In re E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., 476 F.2d 1357, 1361, 177 USPQ 563, 567 (C.C.P.A. 1973); TMEP §1207.01(b)-(b)(v).

In the present case, the marks are nearly identical in appearance, with the only difference being applicant's mark being displayed in a stylized font. However, the registered mark is a standard character mark, and a mark in standard characters may be displayed in any lettering style; the rights reside in the wording or other literal element and not in any particular display or rendition. See In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d 1358, 1363, 101 USPQ2d 1905, 1909 (Fed. Cir. 2012); In re Mighty Leaf Tea, 601 F.3d 1342, 1348, 94 USPQ2d 1257, 1260 (Fed. Cir. 2010); 37 C.F.R. §2.52(a); TMEP §1207.01(c)(iii). Thus, a mark presented in stylized characters will not avoid likelihood of confusion with a mark in standard characters because the marks could be presented in the same manner of display. See, e.g., In re Viterra Inc., 671 F.3d at 1363, 101 USPQ2d at 1909; Squirtco v. Tomy Corp., 697 F.2d 1038, 1041, 216 USPQ 937, 939 (Fed. Cir. 1983) (stating that “the argument concerning a difference in type style is not viable where one party asserts rights in no particular display”).

In addition, the connotation and commercial impression of the marks do not differ when considered in connection with applicant’s and registrant’s respective goods in that the marks create the impression of a controller of a semiconductor diode used in lamps and digital displays. See, e.g., The American Heritage® Dictionary of the English Language (4th ed. 2000):

<http://www.thefreedictionary.com/LED> (defining “LED” as “a semiconductor diode that converts applied voltage to light and is used in lamps and digital displays”) <http://www.thefreedictionary.com/master> (defining “master” as “one that has control over another or others”)

Therefore, the marks are confusingly similar because they are essentially identical.

COMPARISON OF THE GOODS

Because the applied-for mark and the registered mark are essentially identical, the relationship between applicant’s and registrant’s goods need not be as close to support a finding of likelihood of confusion as might apply if differences existed between the marks. In re Opus One Inc., 60 USPQ2d 1812, 1815 (TTAB 2001); Amtcor, Inc. v. Amtcor Indus., Inc., 210 USPQ 70, 78 (TTAB 1981); TMEP §1207.01(a). When the marks are essentially identical, it is only necessary that there be a viable relationship between the goods to support a finding of likelihood of confusion. In re Concordia Int’l Forwarding Corp., 222 USPQ 355, 356 (TTAB 1983).

Moreover, the goods of the parties need not be identical or even competitive to find a likelihood of confusion. See On-line Careline Inc. v. Am. Online Inc., 229 F.3d 1080, 1086, 56 USPQ2d 1471, 1475 (Fed. Cir. 2000); Recot, Inc. v. Becton, 214 F.3d 1322, 1329, 54 USPQ2d 1894, 1898 (Fed. Cir. 2000) (“[E]ven if the goods in question are different from, and thus not related to, one another in kind, the same goods can be related in the mind of the consuming public as to the origin of the goods.”); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i). The respective goods need only be related in some manner or the conditions surrounding their marketing be such that they will be encountered by the same consumers under circumstances that would lead to the mistaken belief that the goods originate from the same source. Gen. Mills Inc. v. Fage Dairy Processing Indus., 100 USPQ2d 1584, 1597 (TTAB 2012); TMEP §1207.01(a)(i); see On-line Careline Inc. v. Am. Online Inc., 229 F.3d at 1086, 56 USPQ2d at 1475; In re Martin’s Famous Pastry Shoppe, Inc., 748 F.2d 1565, 1566-68, 223 USPQ 1289, 1290 (Fed. Cir. 1984).

In this case, applicant’s goods are closely related to registrant’s goods in that applicant offers lighting and registrant offers software for controlling and managing lighting. Consequently, the goods are complementary, and where evidence shows that the goods at issue have complementary uses, and thus are often used together or otherwise purchased by the same purchasers for the same or related purposes, such goods have generally been found to be sufficiently related such that confusion would be likely if they are marketed under the same or similar marks. See In re Toshiba Med. Sys. Corp., 91 USPQ2d 1266, 1272

(TTAB 2009) (holding medical MRI diagnostic apparatus and medical ultrasound devices to be related, based in part on the fact that such goods have complementary purposes because they may be used by the same medical personnel on the same patients to treat the same disease); Polo Fashions, Inc. v. La Loren, Inc., 224 USPQ 509, 511 (TTAB 1984) (holding bath sponges and personal products, such as bath oil, soap, and body lotion, to be related because they are complementary goods that are likely to be purchased and used together by the same purchasers).

As was demonstrated by the third-party registrations attached to the previous Office action, software and lighting are likely to emanate from a single source. See In re Anderson, 101 USPQ2d 1912, 1919 (TTAB 2012); In re Albert Trostel & Sons Co., 29 USPQ2d 1783, 1785-86 (TTAB 1993); In re Mucky Duck Mustard Co., 6 USPQ2d 1467, 1470 n.6 (TTAB 1988); TMEP §1207.01(d)(iii). The following additional evidence demonstrates that the goods at issue may emanate from a single source:

American DJ:

- ▣ <http://www.americandj.com/ProductDetails.aspx?ItemNumber=642&Category=Lamps&txtSearch=lamps> (light bulbs)
- ▣ <http://www.americandj.com/ProductDetails.aspx?Category=&ItemNumber=2114> (light controlling software)

Chauvet:

- ▣ <http://www.chauvetlighting.com/colorado-1-quad-ip.html> (lights)
- ▣ <http://www.chauvetlighting.com/showXpress-software/> (light controlling software)

Indeed, applicant's foreign registration notes that applicant offers software in addition to its lighting products.

As such, consumer confusion as to the source of the goods being provided is likely since applicant's and registrant's goods are closely related.

Ultimately, the fact that the goods of the parties differ is not controlling in determining likelihood of confusion. The issue is not likelihood of confusion between particular goods, but likelihood of confusion as to the source of those goods. In re Shell Oil Co., 992 F.2d 1204, 1208, 26 USPQ2d 1687, 1690 (Fed. Cir. 1993); TMEP §1207.01; see Safety-Kleen Corp. v. Dresser Indus., Inc., 518 F.2d 1399, 1404, 186 USPQ 476, 480 (C.C.P.A. 1975).

COMPARISON OF THE TRADE CHANNELS

Neither the application nor the registration contains any limitations regarding trade channels for the goods.

Absent restrictions in an application and registration, the identified goods are presumed to travel to the same class of purchasers. Citigroup Inc. v. Capital City Bank Grp., Inc., 637 F.3d 1344, 1356, 98 USPQ2d 1253, 1261 (Fed. Cir. 2011); Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Packard Press Inc., 281 F.3d 1261, 1268, 62 USPQ2d 1001, 1005 (Fed. Cir. 2002).

SOPHISTICATION OF PURCHASERS

Applicant argues that “[p]urchasers of software that controls LED based displays are likely to be sophisticated customers.” Applicant has provided no evidence to support this claim. In any event, the fact that purchasers are sophisticated or knowledgeable in the lighting control software field does not necessarily mean that they are sophisticated or knowledgeable in the field of trademarks or immune from source confusion. TMEP §1207.01(d)(vii); see, e.g., Imagineering Inc. v. Van Klassens Inc., 53 F.3d 1260, 1265, 34 USPQ2d 1526, 1530 (Fed. Cir. 1995); Top Tobacco LP v. N. Atl. Operating Co., 101 USPQ2d 1163, 1170 (TTAB 2011).

CONCLUSION

Because applicant's applied-for mark and registrant's mark are essentially identical, because applicant's and registrant's goods are closely related, and because the trade channels of the goods overlap, the applied-for mark must be refused registration based on a likelihood of confusion. Any doubt regarding this likelihood of confusion determination is resolved in favor of the registrant. TMEP §1207.01(d)(i); see Hewlett-Packard Co. v. Packard Press, Inc., 281 F.3d 1261, 1265, 62 USPQ2d 1001, 1003 (Fed. Cir. 2002); In re Hyper Shoppes (Ohio), Inc., 837 F.2d 463, 464-65, 6 USPQ2d 1025, 1025 (Fed. Cir. 1988).

This refusal is now made FINAL.

Usage Note: Master has been a productive source of compounds in English, evidenced by words such as masterpiece, concertmaster, mastermind, and masterstroke, to name just a few. It is also used frequently on its own as a noun, verb, and adjective, with meanings ranging from "an original document that is to be copied" to "a man who serves as the head of a household." The latter sense lends the word masculine connotations, which, along with the word's associations with the institutions of slavery, causes some people to be offended by the use of master in any form. Nonetheless, many senses of master, such as the noun sense "an expert" and the verb sense "to make oneself an expert at," have long been thought of as gender-neutral and are in wide use. Some compounds, like masterpiece and master plan, have lost most, if not all, of their associations with maleness. They exist as distinct words, and people do not usually think of them as a combination of parts each containing a different meaning.
