Hairbond Ltd.

v.

Apollo Products, Inc.

Amy Matelski, Paralegal Specialist:

On March 19, 2014, the Board suspended the above captioned petition to cancel and forwarded the underlying registration (Registration No. 1217199) to the Intent-to-Use Division of the Office for consideration of registrant's motion to divide the registration. A review of the record reveals that, on April 1, 2014, the divisional request was completed, and as a result, the "parent" registration (Registration No. 1217199) retained the goods identified in International Class 42 and the newly created "child" registration (Registration No. 4516730) contains the goods identified in Class 3.¹

In view thereof, proceedings with regards to the "parent" Registration No. 1217199 are resumed and trial dates are reset as indicated below.

¹ The assignment of the goods in International Class 3, now Registration No. 4516730, to petitioner dated February 24, 2014 is recorded at reel 5222/Frame 0820.
