v.

M22, LLC

Jennifer Krisp, Interlocutory Attorney:

Proceedings remain suspended pending disposition of the parties' cross-motions for summary judgment. Any paper filed during the pendency of the motions which is not relevant thereto will be given no consideration. See Trademark Rule 2.127(d).

Under its inherent authority to manage filings in inter partes proceedings, and in this cancellation proceeding in particular, the Board establishes the following briefing schedule for the cross-motions:

- 1) Petitioner's reply brief on its motion, as well as its brief in response to the cross-motion, shall be filed in a single brief, said brief shall be due within thirty days from the date of service of the cross-motion, and said brief shall not exceed twenty-five pages in its entirety, including, if it includes any of these, table of contents, index of cases, description of the record, statement of the issues, recitation of facts, argument and summary;

2) Respondent's reply brief on its cross-motion shall be due pursuant to Trademark Rule 2.127(e)(1). The time for filing a reply brief will not be extended under any circumstances. Id.

The cross-motions for summary judgment will be decided in due course.
