Re: EDGE Trademark Cancellation; No. 92058543
Edge Games Inc (Petitioner) v. Razer Pacific (Registrant)

Dear Sir or Madam:

Upon reviewing the online status of the record of this Cancellation Proceeding this evening we were surprised to note a communication from the Board that was apparently filed yesterday, September 24, 2014. We note in particular that the Board asked that no further documents be filed other than those responsive to Registrant's Motion for Sanctions. We thus write wishing to give assurance and provide clarification.

First, Petitioner was unaware of the Board communication when it filed its Amended Motion to Compel Discovery early today and thus would not wish the Board to mistakenly think that Petitioner was ignoring Board instruction by filing this amended motion. Second, we wish to clarify and confirm that our filing earlier today should not be taken as our formal response to Registrant's Motion for Sanctions, which now that we are aware of it we shall file our formal response in reaction to shortly.

Finally, we note that the Board wishes only filings relating to Registrant's pending Motion at this time. We believe that our Amended Motion to Compel is pertinent (how and the degree to which we shall clarify in our formal response to the Motion). But suffice to say at this juncture that Registrant's Motion for Sanctions appears to be motivated by a mistaken belief that Petitioner is filing excessive motions: our Amended Motion clarifies that first our Motion to Compel was intended to replace our Motion for Summary Judgment, and our Amended Motion to Compel makes clear that our premature filing of the prior motion was in fact not unreasonable, and was justified. Again, our formal response to Registrant's Motion follows. We trust the Board finds the filing of our Amended Motion acceptable, but if not then Petitioner understands if the Board will require it to re-file the Amended Motion after the Stay is lifted.

Yours sincerely,

Rev Dr Tim Langdell, for Petitioner in pro se (cc. Fish & Richardson for Registrant)
