v.

Insta-Group US, Inc.

Nicole Thier, Paralegal Specialist:

On March 28, 2014, the Board reset trial dates and allowed respondent forty days in which to file its answer to the petition to cancel.

On April 21, 2014, the Board's order was returned as undeliverable. Inasmuch as the Board has made numerous attempts to ascertain a new address for the respondent, which have all been unsuccessful, the Board must move forward with the only address of record.

Accordingly, inasmuch as an answer to the petition to cancel was due (as last reset) in this proceeding on May 5, 2014, and as it appears that no answer has been filed, nor has respondent filed a motion to further extend the time to file an answer, notice of default is hereby entered against respondent pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(a).<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Inasmuch as respondent is in default, the parties' obligations to hold the discovery conference, and to serve initial disclosures, are effectively stayed. See TBMP § 312.01.

Cancellation No. 92058680

Respondent is allowed until thirty days from the mailing date of this order to show cause why judgment by default should not be entered against respondent in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2).
