Dear Madam,

Defendant Report of sending 08/23/2015 by mail regarding my response to Default Judgment Request or Requests of Plaintiff

Regarding the high order of the Suspension mailed on August 26, 2015, which I would like to express my thankfulness for your thankful procedure of sending.

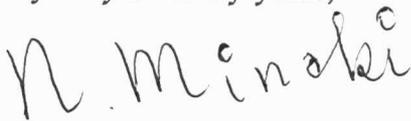

On August 23, 2015 I have mailed/presented/handed to the post office in Yokohama, Japan, my response to the Default Judgment Request or Requests. And the mail has arrived at Airport Mail Center of JFK NY as of 19:19 of 08/25/2015 of your time according to the information of the tracking system of Japan Post. After the custom inspection etc it will be on the process to deliver, according to the information of Japan Post. My mail is a kind to be requested to receive custom inspection.

If you could kindly proceed this Default Judgment matter after receiving my response of me and confirming the contents of the response, I am highly respectfully thankful.

If the date of my response is a matter to consider in the Default Judgment Request or Requests, my understanding regarding due date for defendant etc who are in outside USA such as in Japan, is as follows:

It is the date a post office in Japan has received a letter/document from sender/defendant etc in Japan, not the date TTAB has received, which is the advice of the highly respectful TM Information Specialists, Representatives of USPTO through the contact number 571-272-8500.

Very truly sincerely yours,

Defendant
